

SONG DEDICATIONS

From David Hughes

I proudly dedicate three songs on the Love Lost and Found album to my wife, Mary. The songs Remember Me, Hold Me Baby and Such A Woman were written for her because of the way she has given me love, joy, friendship and the freedom to complete the musical works included in this website. She has been through many personal trials and challenges but has faced them all with a positive, persevering attitude that has touched my heart and the hearts of many people.

SONG #2 on The Power of Positive Singing album is a graduation song titled "One Step At A Time" written for Kim Piper White at her graduation and SONG #4 is a sweet 16 birthday song titled "Sixteen Times" written for Rene White Wallace, Kim's daughter. Rene and her dad, James White danced to it at her birthday party while I performed the song on stage. I remixed "One Step At A Time" for Trey White, Kim's son to be played at his graduation ceremony. Also, Billy Piper, one of Kim's brothers inspired me to write the title song for another album "Love Lost and Found". I dedicate these 2 songs to my good friend Shirley Piper who requested me to write songs for these occasions out of a tremendous love for her daughter Kim and Kim's family. They are all close to my heart and writing and performing the songs was an honor and a true labor of love for me and I hope they are blessed by the music. I wish happiness and love for the whole extended family and I am thankful for the wonderful times we shared.
