From the Minister's Mac

"The New Year"

I want to be excited about this new year. I am trying to stay positive and expect the best. Every new year holds new possibilities, new opportunities, new lessons, new relationships — every new year is full of promise if we remain open to it. I truly believe that.

But things happen in life that can dampen our spirits and extinguish our hope. People in our faith community and throughout the world are dealing with some pretty heavy stuff — death, anger, pain, sorrow, and violence. These things exist in our world and ripple towards us. The ripples grow bigger and bigger, flowing into the consciousness of each of us and flooding our lives as we go about the work of the Christian community, comforting, praying for, and loving one another with everything we've got.

But sometimes, it can be overwhelming.

Jesus knew he would be leaving his disciples in a cruel world that hated them. He told his disciples that the world hated them because of him and that they hated him without cause. He said he was leaving, but that there would be an Advocate with them, so they wouldn't be alone. He told them to take courage. Then he prayed a beautiful, heartfelt prayer, found only in John 17:1-26. He prayed "not only on behalf of these [his disciples] but also on behalf of those who believe in me through their word, that they may all be one." That's us! Jesus was praying for each of us, so that we would not become discouraged in a hateful world. For Jesus, that meant being united through him. It meant remembering that we are connected with other believers who also faced overwhelming events, just as we are connected with believers who will come after us and face God alone knows what.

I write today as I have written before: Do not lose hope! Remember that you are the beloved of God. Remain united as the body of Christ, united as one in Christ. Remember Jesus said, "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand (Mark 3:24-25)."

Together, we can find comfort, courage, and the hope to continue spreading the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to all who will listen. Together, we can continue to comfort, care for, and love one another with everything we've got.

I pray that you remember the words from our Christmas celebration that are so meaningful in these dark times: "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it." As the body of Christ, you are the light now, my friends, connected to Christ through generations of believers. You are the hope for a better year, a year full of possibilities and promise. May it be so.

See you in church,
Lin

Go Fund Me for Merinn Mae Purcell

Aleta Purcell's (donut lady if you don't know who this is) 5 year old granddaughter was tragically run over on New Year's Eve while in South Carolina. A go fund me page has been started in memory of her. It tells about her. If you would like to donate but don't want to go on the gofundme site you are welcome to give something to Aleta to give to her son and family.

***Merinn's dad drove by Rinn Church and liked it and spelled her name after Rinn.
