About the Juror: Pat Fostvedt

Pat Fostvedt is a signature member of the Rocky Mountain National Watermedia Society and the Colorado Watercolor Society. She has served as juror for numerous art exhibitions and is a frequent guest critic for art organizations. Pat works primarily in watermedia. Her work has consistently won awards and been described by critics as “mystical” and “lyrical”. She has taught classes and workshops in casein, oil, pastel portraiture and also worked for 10 years as an illustrator for a botanical company. In judging art, while technical skill and knowledge of the elements and principles of art are necessary and admirable, the most important quality in the painting is that it reveals the unique and personal vision of the artist.
