Together We Are The Church

Christ Lutheran Church Newsletter

Aloha Kakou,

I would like to report out regarding the Synod Assembly in Palm Desert, May 17-19. It was a two-day assembly this year, something new, and it went very well. We were in and out in short order. Mahalo nui loa for keeping me and our assembly delegates, Joel and Anna Hamaguchi, in your prayers as we sat together with other Lutheran Christians, talked story, reflected, prayed, voted. There was nothing terribly tense or controversial this year and when differences did arise, delegates spoke with respect and consideration.

Now, we move into Ordinary Time, the Green season of the Church, the time of teaching, Sabbath rest and reflection. I hope our worship together on Sundays and other days will mirror that time of spiritual growth.

We have finished up the Narrative Lectionary's trip through the Gospel of John, something I hope you have appreciated, enjoyed and learned from. I certainly found it worthwhile for my own study and preaching.

We will continue to have Gospel readings from John, not quite as long though, because after I am back from vacation in late June, I'm going to indulge in a six-week sermon series on the Psalms. I'll begin the last week of June and run through the five weeks of July. I have not done a sermon series decades, so I am looking forward to trying this out with you. Please, let me know how it may (or may not) be helpful for you.

That's about it from my end of things. While traveling, I'll be visiting family and friends and attending a conference on one of my favorite topics, complexity and responsive human relating within organizations. (I promise not to bore you too much with that in my sermons, but watch out otherwise!)

Blessings as we move into summer,

Pastor Paul

We are pleased to share with you our Synod Assembly Final Review publication. Please follow this link <http://www.pacificasynod.org/news-events/31st-annual-pacifica-synod-assembly/> to our Synod Assembly web page. Scroll down to the Post-Assembly Final Review section and click the 2018 Assembly Final Review link to download a PDF version of the publication (be patient, it's a fairly large file).

You will also find a link to our synod YouTube channel, which contains video recordings of all of the assembly business sessions and speakers. We are working to create an album of all of the photos taken during our assembly by our volunteer photographers - Paul Coulter, Chris Bach and Brenda Barrios. When complete, the link to access it will be posted on our Synod Assembly web page.
