

TRAILER LOADING CLINIC

Brought to you by the Douglas-Elbert County Horse Council

Saturday, April 18, 2026
9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Elbert County Fairgrounds, Covered Pavillion
95 Ute Ave., Kiowa, CO 80117

Email tia@herdoftwo.com with any questions or call her at 720-281-0154

DECHC is sponsoring this clinic in conjunction with the Emergency Preparedness Clinic taking place on April 25th at this same location. If you cannot easily load your horse in a stress-free setting, how can you expect to load them when time is of the essence?

We are fortunate to have Tia Jones, a local horse trainer, who has become known as a specialist in helping horses and their owners become more confident and comfortable with trailer loading. You can take your newly learned skills and continue to practice them at home so you are ready should the need to evacuate arise.

Clinic limited to 8 horses. Cost per horse is $75 paid directly to Tia Jones at Herd of Two Horsemanship. Contact Tia directly if you want to participate with your horse. There is no cost to audit this clinic and no registration necessary to audit.

NOTE: This clinic is outdoors. Bring clothing for all kinds of weather and a chair.