

Heidi Miller

Pikes Peak Chapter – Association of the United States Army
Member-at-Large

Heidi joined the military and the West Point corps of cadets, following in her father and sister's footsteps. Upon graduation, she served for 6 ½ years as an active army officer, managing and supporting garrison and deployed operations throughout family support (FRG), infantry, air assault, pathfinder, sustainment and administrative disciplines. Heidi transitioned from active duty into the Army Reserves in 2015 and started working for Bradley-Morris, Inc. | RecruitMilitary, where she is directing proper interview assistance and resume review, while preparing the military and military spouse community for a successful career transition.
