SUMMER & FALL
2018

Look what's happening this Summer

With the successful launching of Roc's celebration of Spring and the Lilac Festival, the excitement is building for summer happenings. The International Jazz Festival will be held June 22 through the 30th. Lucky ticket holders will be able to enjoy headliner shows with Boz Scaggs, Seal, Alison Krauss, the Flecktones and others. If you don't have tickets ... no need to worry... Music is all around with many free events. To see the complete lineup, please go to www.rochesterjazz.com.

Come on out and help the historic Corn Hill neighborhood celebrate its 50th Annual Festival on July 14th & 15th! To really "do it up" the festival will feature a 1969 Revival Parade with music, dance and floats from that nostalgic year. Dress up in your favorite 1969 garb. This is your chance to look back and remember the good old days.

Love music? Take a look at the Rochester Philharmonic's schedule of concerts. There is the Star Wars Concert Series, Summer With the RPO and more..... www.rpo.org . At least one concert is free ~ come on out to Pittsford on the Erie Canal on Wednesday, July 25th @ 7:30PM.

Also, the Hochstein School of Music has its series of summer concerts at High Falls at Noon time on Thursdays. For more info, please go to www.hochstein.org Take your breath away with the gift of music!

Please don't forget our many fabulous museums and the special exhibits they have lined up this summer. Two of our museums are National Historic Landmarks: The George Eastman Museum and the National Susan B. Anthony Museum & House.

Steel Magnolias is now playing at GEVA Theatre. Other productions to enjoy can be found at www.gevatheatre.org

Please don't forget to check out the Memorial Art Gallery
