

Tuesday, October 14 2008

Herald.ie

WORLD NEWS

Tribute to first NY settler

Monday October 13 2008

The New York grave of an Irish woman, the first immigrant to pass through Ellis Island, has been marked with a Celtic cross.

Clergy members joined Annie Moore's descendants and admirers on Saturday in Queens Cemetery.

She died 80 years ago, but her unmarked grave was discovered only two years ago.

She was 17 when she arrived in New York from Co Cork in 1892. The Irish consul general in New York says she is a symbol for the hundreds of thousands of Irish who settled in New York.
