Book sale and raffle raises $7,188 for animal shelter

The Randolph County Animal Shelter book sale and raffle was a great fundraising success for the shelter. The amount realized was $7,188.

The winners of the raffle were:

First prize: $300 to Greg Norred, Wedowee;

Second prize: Mossberg rifle to Timi Fields, Atlanta;

Third prize: Meadowcraft cooler to Nancy Burnes, Wedowee.

Fundraising chairwoman Evelyn Smith said the shelter thanks Chris Mitchum for allowing the sale at his unique warehouse and all the volunteers who spend many hours shelving all the books that are donated. "But most of all we thank you, the folks from Randolph County who support us year after year so that we are able to maintain the best shelter in the South.

Chris Mitchum draws the winning rafle ticket as Chuck Smith holds the bucket.
