

Kaliszewski, Wanda A.

Wanda Ann (Kroetsch) Kaliszewski, 81, of Bad Axe, passed away on Saturday, June 9, 2007, at St. Mary Hospital in Saginaw. Wanda was born on July 13, 1925 in Snover to the late John and Bernice Mary (Doerr) Kroetsch. Wanda was a 1943 graduate of Sandusky High School. She worked at Briggs Manufacturing in Detroit as a "Rosie the Riveter". She also worked in Detroit as a domestic for years. She lived in Roseville from 1953-1988 before moving to Bad Axe in 1989. Wanda enjoyed the Detroit Tigers, country music shows, cooking, gardening and shopping. Wanda is survived by two daughters, Janet Rogers, of Kalamazoo, and Kristen Peltier and her husband, Ernie, of Bad Axe; five grandchildren, Derek Hickok, Shane Peltier, Ernie "Duke" Peltier II, Lawrence Brent Rogers, Ryan Rogers; two great grandchildren, Molli and Nolan Hickok; one brother, Philip Kroetsch and his wife, Agnes, of Port Austin; one sister, Barbara Ellenbaum, of Florida. Wanda was preceded in death by an infant sister; two brothers, John and Walter Kroetsch; two sisters, Mary Lee Culver and Mary Jane "Ione" Chapman. Private services will be conducted at a later date. Arrangements are being handled by the Zinger-Smigielski Funeral Home in Ubly.