Are We Living the Truth of the Gospels

August 3rd, 2023

“Little children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.” That’s in 1 John 3:18.

Dear ones, Mother Clare began, I believe it is important to go deeper when we embrace the teachings of our faith, as they are handed onto us from pastors. They are men, not able to come to an agreement on what teachings in the Scriptures mean. Thus, we have hundreds of different interpretations of the simple gospel message.

I firmly believe that we should formulate our beliefs according to what Scripture says, without leaving some things that do not agree with their culture out. In other words, men have for hundreds of years focused on different passages of Scripture and left out others which they thought were unimportant to the Lord's message. This has left us with a lop-sided gospel and men who favored one approach to Jesus' words while ignoring others, then others distorting the meaning of those doctrines.

Some have said we have a cafeteria style gospel. Certain doctrines have been emphasized while others were down played, resulting in an incomplete picture of what Jesus taught us. Denominations fight over how to baptize, full immersion, partial immersion, in Jesus Name, in the Name of the Holy Trinity. Some baptize infants, others wait until the age of accountability to be sure the child understands what it means.

Some say there is no rapture, others say it is after the tribulation, others say it is in the middle of the tribulation, and still others believe it is before the tribulation? Who do we believe? The loudest voice, the most comfortable voice, the highly educated voice, the institutional voice of great congregations???

The Lord told us that the Holy Spirit would lead us into all truth. But what about those who want to keep the traditions of their culture and mix them with Christian teachings, causing them to be watered down and lacking the integrity of what Jesus taught? And what about those who stand on the modern teachings and ignore the foundational teachings from the very start of the church, the first 300 years? Very simply, the gospel message and way of life have been ignored as being too old fashioned and not relevant in this modern age of industry and internet.

I believe it takes the working of the Holy Spirit, going back to the first century, to see what believers lived and died for. The traditions that were begun by the apostles were HOLY traditions, when the Jews tried to insert their traditions, they were UNHOLY. When men were influenced by political and financial gain, with the motive to control the whole world, such as the Vatican, they diverged greatly from what the apostles taught and spoke about and lived in their meetings.

Yet a few early traditions from the Apostles did get preserved and the meaning of the gospels were enriched by the Holy Spirit through faithful men. For instance, nowhere in the Bible is the Holy Trinity mentioned. However, it was shown to be true by the Holy Spirit as men searched deeper and prayed. So, now we know the Father, Son and Holy Spirit as equal parts of God, expressing His different natures. This was legitimate tradition. Pressuring people to pay for a church burial was a greedy tradition, selling spiritual blessings by the clergy was a greedy and ungodly tradition that persists in some places today.

I pray that we all walk in the truth, that we do not avoid certain doctrines that are clearly outlined by Christ in the Scriptures, and traditionally avoided by the modern church. I pray that we will not be a heretical church that teaches suffering is not part of the Christian experience or Evangelical poverty is also not Christian....when Jesus taught these things so firmly in the Beatitudes and Paul affirmed them in his letters.

If we do not seek to live the truth, but live only our cultures' idea of truth, how will we face Jesus in that day when we have spent our lives seeking material luxuries, higher learning, political status, and all of modern man's gospel of prosperity and good health? While standing beside those who loved Jesus enough to do what He asked, "Go, sell all you have, give to the poor, then, come and follow Me." I pray we live in the truth, not modern man's truth which will be burnt up in the fires of purification with all the works we did for those worldly motives.

It takes guts to sell all you have for the pearl of great price. It also took guts not to call down angels to deliver Himself from crucifixion for our sakes. The point is, He will give you the guts, the courage, if you love Him more than anything else in the world, otherwise you will make yourself a lukewarm Christian, always juggling compromise to still look good, when you face Him in the Final Judgment. All I can say, dear ones, is that I never regret giving it all away to have Him and what He gave me in return was unspeakable glory and fellowship in His Heart, forever and ever. Amen!

Ezekiel Message - Is it Washington

August 9th, 2023

Is it Washington.

Father Ephraim: In the midst of all the protests arising and everything, the day went on, it got darker. No lights on at the Rotunda, the Capitol building, someone had set this side of the Capitol, that wing was on fire.

Mother Clare: Which wing was on fire?

Father Ephraim: So, you could- As you are facing the Capitol Dome from the street-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm. From the White House, you mean.

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: At the bottom of – at the midway, where they put a President, you know, where he steps down the stairs- steps- there is a platform, you know, the President-where the President is sworn in- are you getting the picture at all?

Mother Clare: Mm-hm, yeah.

Father Ephraim: It is not at the top of the steps; it is at the platform, you know-

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: A few steps down, there is a widening platform below the steps to get in.

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: Some wing next to it, to the right of it-

Mother Clare: Uh-huh.

Father Ephraim: As you are entering through the Capitol-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Gates. The White House.

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: Whatever wing that is, was on fire. And there were protesters filling the streets like ants. That is why the initial police cars were parked at an angle, to try to keep any one from going through-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: There were so many, even though the sidewalks were full of guards and military barricades with the lights off, when I got up higher-

Mother Clare: Barricades with the lights OFF?

Father Ephraim: Capitol lights off, the White House lights off-

Mother Clare: Ok. You mean inside.

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: And as the right side was burning, the right wing was burning, I saw a casket wrapped with the American flag on the midway steps, the platform going up and inside the White House. And then there were many, many, many children coming out of the White House.

Mother Clare: At the same time?

Father Ephraim: Yes.

Mother Clare: So, there was a casket draped with a flag and children coming out.

Father Ephraim: Actually, the children coming out was, they were two separate visions. The children were in the first one.

Mother Clare: The children coming out were in the first one.

Father Ephraim: They found more children in the White House, and they were bringing them in from the tunnels or wherever they were, anywhere from two years old up to maybe twelve or thirteen.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: At that midway point on the steps up to the Capitol building, the Dome, or the Rotunda-

Mother Clare: Well, the Capitol building, and the White House are two different things.

Father Ephraim: I know, it did not look like the White House, it looked like part of the nation's capital that has a big dome, it comes into a big dome.

Mother Clare: Ok. But where was the fire? In the White House? In the right wing?

Father Ephraim: Yeah-No- Whatever is to the right of the Capitol Dome – Because at this point, a lot of military from all the branches involved- Army, Navy-

Mother Clare: Armed?

Father Ephraim: Huh?

Mother Clare: Are they armed?

Father Ephraim: Oh, absolutely. These were like the protests of the sixties.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And as I was saying, first of all I saw, when I went up above, children. After the first line came out- Are you there?

Mother Clare: Yes, I am here.

Father Ephraim: More- they brought out more- and this line went on.

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: Could not count –

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: The children.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: It was a very, very long line – A line that I could not count were rescued and on the way out.

Mother Clare: They were rescued and, on the way, out.

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: The steps going up to where you inaugurate a President-

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: Are like a porch with carpet on it.

Mother Clare: Right, right.

Father Ephraim: Where they do the Inauguration on it, and I did not see it, but in its place, there is only a casket draped with an American flag, just a few steps down.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: There was a casket draped with an American flag-

Mother Clare: Uh-huh.

Father Ephraim: But it was not Donald Trump.

Mother Clare: You are sure?

Father Ephraim: Yes.

Mother Clare: Well, thank God.

Father Ephraim: From our capital, these crowds kept growing and growing, with such oppression. In Paris, in London, in Washington, DC.

Mother Clare: Really?

Father Ephraim: And the impression I had was that these people are not dumb, they know that there are a lot of things that just are not right. Marching against this administration. Do you understand?

Mother Clare: Yes. The administration in Paris or in Washington?

Father Ephraim: Washington, DC.

Mother Clare: And the White House being on fire- was that another event?

Father Ephraim: That was a distraction so that - In the meantime everything had gone dark- the only way you could see even the children was the light from the fire.

Mother Clare: Mm. So, it was dark when the children were being brought out, right?

Father Ephraim: Mm.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: This is either happening right now and or- they are saying things like 'You lied to us!' There is screaming and yelling.

Mother Clare: Really?

Father Ephraim: Yeah. Carrying signs. What to do? All around the world there are big protests.

Mother Clare: Wow, all around the world, huh? Wow! So, it was not a national event, but an international world event.

Father Ephraim: Global event.

Mother Clare: Global.

Father Ephraim: I think that I have seen four cities, including the Leaning Tower of Pisa in Italy.

Mother Clare: Mm-hm. You did not see the Vatican?

Father Ephraim: Pisa, I do not know what size town it is - It is a leaning tower, it is a leaning tower.

Mother Clare: Well, it says it is Pisa, so it is probably Pisa.

Father Ephraim: Right.

Ezekiel Message -7.20.23

August 11th, 2023

Mother Clare: So, you are seeing an island. Is it merged or has it been there?

Father Ephraim: It keeps moving from place to place in the ocean.

Mother Clare: It keeps moving from place to place in the ocean. Ok, go ahead.

Father Ephraim: First thing He said was, "No man or woman is an island."

Mother Clare: The Holy Spirit said that.

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: And until that island is stopped and stationery, it will always wander from place to place, so too with our souls. We will never be stable until we rest in the Lord, full confidence, but particularly honoring and being honest with the Lord about your prayer times, otherwise you are just that island, shifting from place to place. You might even live in the same house, but in your spirit and your soul, there is a restlessness. There is a- things happen- people call, knock on the door, you go to the store, and the intention is, 'Well, I will pray when I get back,' but 'When I get back' sometimes never happens, because the day just gets busier.

Father Ephraim continues: But please, consider taking at least one day a week and make that a 'retreat day' and be honest with that before the Lord so that your life can be stable and balanced and, in your heart, you will not be wandering in your heart here, there and everywhere and you will be stable in your heart and mind and your spirit and your soul will not be restless anymore. Stay in your prayer place, eat, drink what you need to, and do not judge anyone, but please be honest, please be honest. We have to remember the minute we open our eyes; we truly are in the presence of the Lord.

You would never have a visitor and completely ignore Him all day long, and into the night. Poor Jesus! He waits and waits and waits and He gets the last part of your day when your eyes are falling asleep and your mind suddenly slows down, gradually. I keep hearing Him, "Say this please, say this please."

Mother Clare: What?

Father Ephraim: All I keep hearing Him say is "Please" – All He keeps saying, He said, "Please, stay here with Me, and stop your wandering." All I can tell you is, put the cell phone away, you do not have to answer it, turn the computer off. I know some of you have children and spouses, and I know that you are tired from taking care of your husband and children, but this is not a time to run to the store and go shopping, or picnics and things like that, you know, it is not a season of busy activity. In this season, He is asking us to comfort Him and to comfort the souls out there, even in Purgatory, those who are most forgotten.

Father Ephraim continues: Maybe after three days already, everyone forgets and goes on with their lives, and these souls have no one to pray for them. Invite them to your meals- Breakfast, lunch, dinner, snacks- Honor our Daddy, our Jesus and the Holy Spirit, the Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, and all the angels and saints, all the hosts in Heaven. Join with them, pray with them, and I promise you, if you are faithful to a true time of prayer, without wandering away from Him for little things- everyone can wait, and everything can wait. But please do not- do not make Him wait, He is your guest, please do not ignore our Jesus, or run to other things, but spend quality time with Him.

I love you all, I pray the same thing for myself and all of us here on the mountain. I pray that the Lord would settle on you with His own peace, so that your heart is not divided anymore, between the world and Him. Your mind is not cluttered with thoughts of what to do and where to go, you know, baby showers and graduations and who knows what. Take something into your prayer time, some coffee, whatever you take something to eat and drink, go to the bathroom.

And try to make sure you go to bed early at night so that you are well rested, because He is -He is there with you. Love Him, hold Him, comfort Him, and most of all, let Him hold you. Find that sweet, sweet, sweet place of peace and love and contentment fulfillment in Him being in you and with you.

You are all in my prayers and thank you so much for your prayers.

Q Washington

August 16th, 2023

Father Ephraim: Most everything I see, it could be past, it could be present or future, normally present or future, so I am not saying that this is going on in real time today, it might be, or it could be in the near future. Yeah, the streets are just – the Holy Spirit is taking me up to a higher level- And there are platoons and brigades of military, I see some-a couple of tanks just on the one side, they have the fences covered over so people could not see them from the street, but the Lord took me up a little higher.

And several toddlers- up to- and then up to twelve and fourteen, up or down and in between, just a long line of children that they are marching out, you know, gosh, at least I would have thought that they would have waited until dark, I think somebody rescued those children.

Sister Geryl: Well-

Father Ephraim continues -I saw a fire, and it looked like someone started a random protester fire out in the streets, but then it began to spread and so I tried to bring my focus back and the Lord just kind of took me down like He does to the upper lower level. At some point, whatever is attached to the Capitol Dome, whatever those buildings are, the one on the right looks like it is on fire big time.

Sister Geryl: Well, that whole area is supposed to be destroyed by God, because that is where – you know, the whole-

Father Ephraim: I mean you can look down the street and miles down you can see fire and smoke.

Sister Geryl: The whole thing is the pentagram. And I had heard some of this stuff but I really did not understand it, you know, years before, but you have got the Capitol and then you have got the Washington Monument and then down the road in Virginia there is a Masonic temple and they are all connected and I never knew that until now, and the Lord is taking all of that out, it is not going to stand.

Father Ephraim: Mm. Wow. Well, either in the near future or soon, if not right now, today, the protesters are just growing, they look like ants pressed together, they are just shoulder to shoulder.

Sister Geryl: I never watch the news and I just got kicked off my network again so I cannot even go on internet.

Father Ephraim: I have got an I Pad but the internet has been acting kind of weird, just like the radios. You will be on something, and it will skip over to something else.

Sister Geryl: Well, they are supposed to shut it down and only open up certain channels for the white hats to pump information into all of us, all the stuff that we already know.

Father Ephraim: How many- How many days till – the most- the last date they gave? For the Inauguration?

Sister Geryl: Today is what- the seventeenth? The twenty-third, Sunday. This coming Sunday today is Tuesday.

Father Ephraim: Man, that is only five days away. When- Obviously when that happens, the country is going to, you know, at least politically, split, and later on the water will divide the country.

Sister Geryl: But that may be why the protests are going on now, why-because the white hats wanted to have some sort of event that would force them to have no- to force everybody to be in martial law and to stay in their houses. And that is when they would open up only the channels, cancel out all the MSM and open up only channels that they can pump out information.

Father Ephraim: Are you talking about under Biden or when Trump comes in?

Sister Geryl: No, no, I am talking about now, in order, in preparation for Trump coming in.

Father Ephraim: Oh, ok.

Sister Geryl: I was not sure about the timing, but it makes sense that this would happen before Trump got in because people would have to be told what is going on, they are not going to be told what is going on after Trump goes in.

Father Ephraim: You know- You know what I think? Part-Part of it is that people are not dumb by any means, and they know how to get good, reliable alternate news -

Sister Geryl: Right.

Father Ephraim: And stuff.

Sister Geryl: Right.

Father Ephraim: And enough people are starting to say, 'look, something is wrong with this.'

Sister Geryl: Well, you know-

Father Ephraim: They are coming out of their houses-People protesting in DC in front of the Capitol Dome.

Mother Clare: You said people were crowding in.

Father Ephraim: Right. A crush of people in front of the entrance to the-Mother Clare: Was it Trump's general?

Father Ephraim: Honey, you have to let me finish.

Mother Clare: Ok. Go ahead.

Father Ephraim: Or I will – I will lose it.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: In front of that gate, when you go in on that side, or whatever side it is that you go in, tourists' stuff- It was like there were-at first there a few police cars and stuff like that, and pretty soon, you know, Special Teams were coming in and SWAT vehicles, and they parked their cars kind of angular-

Mother Clare: Uh-huh.

Father Ephraim: Because of-People are not dumb by any means, and they know a lot of things are just not right.

Satan Marching South

August 18th, 2023

Mother Clare: Ok, you are saying you are seeing Satan marching southward. Where? In Europe or America?

Father Ephraim: England. America, England-

Mother Clare: America, England-

Father Ephraim: I guess you just mentioned Spain.

Mother Clare: Italy.

Father Ephraim: America, England-Please let me talk.

Mother Clare: Yes honey.

Father Ephraim: Invaded, attacked, whatever you want to call it. And there were thousands and thousands of protesters, at the same time the lights were out, and they were marching children. But if that was going on in America, after I saw two other countries, England and France, London and Paris, same kind of people, same crowds, same everything-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: They have just been smart enough to figure things out themselves. They are angry. I saw Lucifer in Italy, from Pisa south, stomping, stomping, with big boots. He was stomping his way from Pisa to Rome- After he had wreaked havoc in all those countries-

Mother Clare: Rioting?

Father Ephraim: Mm-hm. Is Pisa higher than Rome on the map?

Mother Clare: I do not know; I have to go in the other room and check.

Father Ephraim: He is going to go to Jerusalem.

Mother Clare: He is on his way to Jerusalem?

Father Ephraim: When I saw these things taking place-

Mother Clare: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: Please hear me- Carefully.

Mother Clare: I hear you.

Father Ezekiel: And do not ask questions or speak on the side-

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ezekiel: So I do not forget. Lucifer himself, marching, and as he marched, the boots got bigger. He began to stomp – Headed for Rome, and then going to Jerusalem.

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: And doing the same thing in Russia – in Moscow.

Mother Clare: In Moscow, too?

Father Ephraim: Yeah. These cities- The Greeks, in Greece, in Russia he goes to Saint Petersburg and Moscow. He went back to or directly to Jerusalem.

Mother Clare: Satan did.

Father Ephraim: Yes ma'am. And everyone that was following him, humans, people that believe that they could be part of his echelon-

Mother Clare: Oh.

Father Ephraim: He goes back and marches on Jerusalem.

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Now the people who have followed him and make war with him who have believed his lies-

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: They are all around, but I am amazed at the people, just numbers, huge crowds who believe him, with no mercy, and those who- who will not bow down to Baal- are beheaded on the spot- in the church.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: That was Saint Petersburg. I remember that dream I had about that, but I can tell you one thing-

The Great Refiner's Fire

August 21st, 2023

"But who can endure the day of His coming? Who can stand when he appears? For He will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap." That's in Malachi 3:2.

Greetings dear Family, every morning I like to get up early and take a walk and talk with Jesus in the cool of the day before the hustle and bustle begins.

John often teases me and asks if the Lord was able to get a word in edgewise on our talks....he's such a comedian! This morning I was hiking up a small hill, carrying Father Ezekiel's staff declaring and decreeing that our sister community here in the desert would be used for the Lord's purposes and for His glory. Just then I clearly heard Jesus say, "Ezekiel will do his purgatory on earth, and when I take him to Me, I will place him in a very high position in Heaven."

I replied, "Lord that is so cool! You could not have bestowed your grace on a more willing and grateful servant."

Jesus smiled and said, "He will sit on a most beautiful throne."

At that moment, in vision, I saw an exquisite and majestic looking throne made of gold with inlays of ivory and mother of pearl on the arm rests. Precious jewels of rubies, emeralds, diamonds, sapphires and more, adorned the frame, arms and legs. There was a cross above the top of the high back cushion and a symbol with writing that I couldn't make out. The color of the back and seat of the throne was a beautiful combination of crimson and purple and the material was a silky velvet. I was thinking I have never seen that color or material before, and Jesus said, "Because it only exists in Heaven, Elisabeth."

"Why, Lord, did Father Ezekiel's throne appear to change in color?"

He grinned and responded with, "The color can change to be visually appealing to the one who sits on it, as well as, the one who looks upon it."

"I desire to speak with all of you about My refining fires, He continued, "My deep love for you yearns to help you stand uprightly. My people, enter into My presence and encounter My transforming power in your lives. I am the refiner; I know your sins and your need for cleansing. You are precious to Me, dear ones, and for those of you who will surrender to Me, I will purify you."

"When there is brokenness between Us, if you turn to Me, I will reach down to redeem and restore what needs to be mended. I will ignite and purify your heart with Holy Spirit's fire and draw out the dross, repairing your broken and sinful ways, so that you will be able to stand pure and righteous before My Father."

And here I'd like to add that a refiner's fire does not destroy the metal, rather it allows the ick and impurities to be removed. The fire does not consume the metal, it makes it better and more valuable. Which allows us to visualize how God's redemptive, transformative power works within us. Proverbs 17:3 states, "The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold, but the LORD tests the heart.”

Jesus continued, “Being in a relationship with Me will draw you into righteousness and away from sin. I use your suffering and shortcomings to refine you. This process allows the more pure of heart to grow in humility and meekness, while subduing the flesh. My Heartdwellers will bring Me broken ones, and by My Spirit, I will cleanse, heal and regenerate these precious souls.

“In order to train you in My ways, I will permit Holy Spirit’s fire to consume you and cause you to die more to yourselves so that I can work more fully through you. The key to suffering is to handle it rightly when it comes. Some of you face persistent trials, others feel like your prayers go unanswered, I desire to refine you, to bring you higher in faith and fruitfulness which magnifies My glory. I love you dear ones, draw close to Me and experience My great love for you.” And that was the end of His message.

In James Chapter 1, verses 2 through 4 we read, “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.” Amen.

God bless you dear Heartdwellers and thank you for your love, prayers and support. We love you and are praying for you.

Examining My Heart

August 22nd, 2023

Hello May the Lord bless you, dear family, with joyful thoughts, with creative thoughts, and with hope in these times.

Well, speaking of being creative, I was taking a look at myself today – my conscience, checking my conscience- And I saw some things I did not like at all- in fact, they were very depressing.

So, when I came into prayer, I said to the Lord, Gee Lord...getting a look at the real me is no fun. I have not lived up to my calling and I am deeply sorry. You know the things that hold me bound, please help me overcome them. And I am sorry I missed You earlier, when You began to give me a word. I just- sometimes I have such a short attention span. Please have pity and increase my ability to concentrate and follow through.

He answered me. “Are you finished?”

You know I could go on and on with what I am beginning to see that I want to change, but it would be so depressing.

“OK then, now that you are finished, for the time being, Let Me tell you how pleased I am with the courage you displayed in looking on these things. My dearest, what you long for will only become possible to you in Heaven. So, I want you to keep your eye on these faults in your dealings with others and forget about them.”

And meaning, He wants me to make sure I do not repeat them, but then drop it and forget about them, do not put any attention on that.

“In other words, do not lament and fester over these things Clare, just do your best and keep going. Let Me handle your sanctification, and as you work with the sanctification of others, so shall I work with you, so that you have nothing to fear about forgetting yourself and abandoning all to Me.

"To the degree you lavish your care and concern on others, to that degree will I do the same for you. Spend time with them. Listen, listen deeply as I will reveal to you the deep hurts that have wreaked havoc in their life. Be a doctor of soul's beloved. Care for them as you care for your animals."

But Lord, they are not fuzzy.

"Neither are you, by the way!" He answered. "But I still lavish My love on you. My comfort, My warm fuzzies if you will, are in the life of obedience to My known and suspected will. A soul who lives each moment that way, makes Me warm and fuzzy, and glowing inside."

Wow, thank You for telling me that, and as He said that immediately things came to mind that I could do to make Him happy, little things, but they carry such a clout.

"Yes, My Love, and I do need to be made happy with all this darkness in the world. Little things, little details, mean a lot to Me, this cheers Me to no end. To see a soul, pick up the hints about what would make Me happy, and diligently execute them is like a medicine to My endless wounds from the ingratitude of souls."

Oh Lord, I want this, I want to love you this way. Please give me a longing for this attribute so I can show my gratitude for Who You are and how You have nourished and tenderly corrected us.

"As you do this, My Love, you will find your strength begin to return to you."

I need it Lord, so desperately. It is when I have an abundance of strength that I can reach out and stretch to do these little things I recognize every day but require more strength than I have.

He continued, "Love knows no burdens, when you are deeply in love, nothing is burdensome, rather it is a delight to execute. The enemy has managed to turn all of you inward on yourselves, when I want you turned outward to others. Of course, this can only happen when your concern is more for them, or for Me, than for yourself. I have seen you; I know you, and the lengths that you will go through to execute the littlest detail, just to make it right. But the years have taken a toll on you, and you are doing well just to keep up with the necessities, rather than reaching for the cherry on top."

Oh Lord, I really need this, I need it, I need it! I want this. The extra mile, the cherry on top, and the little things that make life special. Please help me.

He continued, "That is My intention Beloved, that is fully My intention. And you will find that something stirs from deep within to answer that call, to go the extra mile, to pick that cherry from the top of the tree. There is a longing in you to lavish love, but it has been dampened by the enemy."

How so Lord?

"Distractions, thinking about yourself...curiosity, following butterflies, getting hung on non-essentials, paying too much attention to the details in your own life, unnecessary details derail you. This is a discipline you need help to master. So many things do not come into being when you follow your fancies. Advertisers know this so they entrap you. For instance, the snake with the bulge in its belly. Did knowing what was in the snake's belly in any way contribute to your music or to your mission or to souls?"

No.

"Well, you see, this is where you are vulnerable. People study these techniques to get you hooked, and you are one little fish that loves every kind of bait. But this is what I want you to do. When you are tempted to follow a link, ask yourself, "Does this have any bearing on my mission?" And if the answer is, 'No.' do not fall for it. You tend to justify your little side trips by saying, 'This will only take a minute.' That should warn you that you have departed from the path, the path of fulfilling your dreams, the path of making Me ecstatically happy with you.

"Many people have the false notion that I need nothing to be happy and complete. How far from the truth is that? I created you to fellowship with Me, because I longed for companionship. I get extreme joy and satisfaction from My interactions with My creation. For instance, when you complete a song and it is just right, you feel a special satisfaction. When I see the antics of kittens playing, I laugh and feel fulfilled that what I caused to come into being has life of its own that is pure and joyful. How do you feel when one of your cats licks your hand affectionately?"

I derive great pleasure from that, Lord.

"And so, I derive great pleasure when I experience your goodness, your happiness and fulfillment. Things are as they should be, and they bring joy to Me and to others. This is what I am asking you to pursue, my love, and to leave these other things behind.

"Beware of these distractions, they are there to snag you and you do not realize how far astray you will go from just one thing, because one thing leads to another to another to another, three hours later you wake up and say, 'I should have been working on music, what in the world am I doing?' That is what I am talking about.

"So please, limit yourself with distractions, and I will help you and derive great joy from using your efforts to do so."

The Day I Lift Your Veil

August 23rd, 2023

Be encouraged, dear family. Truly, we do not have long to wait, our time is coming.

What a beautiful experience with the Lord during prayer. He came up to me and He said, "You mean everything to Me."

And He lifted my veil.

And this message is for everyone.

"The day I lift your veil will be the happiest day of My life. The day I look into your eyes and say, 'My betrothed I give Myself to you forever and ever.' How beautiful you will be with the completeness of My anointing on you, bringing you all to perfection. A perfection you never thought possible. You see, on this Earth you are twenty-four seven tormented, accused and violated in your minds by these filthy creatures. And the day when I lift the veil you will see with clear eyes, not through a glass darkly, but through a perfect, pristine transparent veil with no shadows, nothing hidden, no accusations against you, no remorse, no sadness, only the glory of My Presence completely engulfing you.

"Oh, how I look forward to that very day when no longer you are tormented by the taunts of the enemy and the shadows of your past life. There will be no more shadows, only brilliant jubilant pristine light and overwhelming happiness, true bliss. Yes, My Brides, you will be truly transformed into My living, walking, breathing glory. Oh, what a day when the angels shall break forth with overwhelming celebration that you are finally living the life of God and no longer a prisoner of darkness and sorrow of an earthly life.

“You will burst forth with indescribable praise, expressed in only the way each one of you individually can express it through sounds and motions and creations you never dreamed of. Oh, how wondrous will be the creativity bestowed on you along with all the opportunity, freedom and provision to express yourself in ways you always wanted but never thought possible.

“You see, on this Earth there is only a touch of freedom compared to what will be given you in Heaven. All oppression will be gone and yet there is no way to convey to you what that will be like, because on this Earth you are living under layers and layers of dark and filth hemmed in on all sides above and below. There is no way to communicate this inexpressible freedom from all your fears. Fears of doing wrong, making mistakes, being judged, judging, not pleasing Me, all of that will be gone, gone, gone forever. Only My approval and joy will remain in and around you forever and ever and ever and never shall you stop creating and being touched deeply by the creations of others.

“There is just no way to describe the absence of darkness, but you will live in this very alive breath of Heaven, forever and ever. Amen.”

They Will Follow The Beast

August 24th, 2023

The Lord impart courage and hope to you, dear family. Coming into prayer today I asked the Lord, what is on your heart?”

He said, “All the world will follow after the Beast. They will see him as their salvation and an end to all their troubles. Even Christians will be divided about him. Those who follow the prosperity gospel will love him. The apostate pastors have made the way clear for them to follow, they will even see him as the fulfillment of Bible promises of wealth and security. He will meet every one of their needs. Even now this generation has been conditioned and groomed to receive him with open arms. Those who worship success, pleasure, wealth, and health will be devoted to him. Renouncing Me will be a minor detail.

“My precious ones, you who love Me so much, you will have much to suffer from these evil ones. Indeed, your poverty will be detestable. While you are hunting for your next meal they will be sitting before a table full of food. You will be looked upon as the world's rubbish...the undesirables that need to be terminated.

“Do not concern yourselves with their condemnations, you will be receiving My portion, which truly, is an honor, rejoice in that hour that you have been found worthy to share in My fate. As I have already told you, the wilderness will be the safest place, however there will be dangers there as well, for they will attempt to hunt you down. As you rely more and more on Me, and hear My voice, and obey it, you will continually elude them.

“Let there be no quarreling among you, the designated leader, who you will continually pray for, will be given the instructions. You will all have to work at crucifying your egos, your desires to lead, your desire to know it all and prove yourself worthy. You will know a true leader because I will time and time again confirm his or her capacity to lead by the victories you will have when they are in charge.”

I wanted to say something about that. Here on the Refuge, when we first started, we had far more competent people here than me. Far more competent. I felt like a shadow, you know, I felt like I was standing in their shadow. But every time I said something was going to happen a certain way, I said ‘Let us do this because I think this is coming,’ it seemed kind of-you know, kind of lame or out of line, but every time I did, it happened.

And the Lord confirmed me as the Leader over and over and over again, even though I just felt like a slug, really. So, do not worry about how people look at you in the world and measure you according to man’s standards. Cleave to the Lord and say what He tells you to say, do what He tells you to do, and He will prove you to be the leader by the justice that comes. Going back to the Lord now.

“My dear, dear ones do not be afraid to die. That day you will be with Me in Paradise. You will be much happier when your physical body is dead, there will be no more struggles to survive. You will glorify Me in your death, and I will glorify you in Heaven. You have so much to gain when you die for love of Me, please try to leave a touch of love for your executioner, pardon and bless them.

“You will have many nights, sitting around a small campfire, when I will take you to Heaven for previews of what awaits you. I will be with you to give constant encouragement. Constant. You will become stronger and resolute, even more joyful, than you ever imagined possible. It is an honor to die for Me, always keep that in the forefront of your minds.

Now He did not tell me that everyone was going to die but this is for the ones that He is going to allow to be taken.

“My people will have everything they need, I will see to it, grace and provision will abound. Do not be afraid, you are Mine and I know how to preserve you blameless for Heaven. Remember that you have angels and saints looking on as well. Their hearts will be on fire with love for you and prayers will flow like a river from their lips. This is truly the most exciting time in the history of the Earth and how blessed you are to be a part of it. I am always with you and will NEVER abandon you...I will take your hand and ascend with you in glory to your Heavenly homeland. So be fearless.”

Talk To and Hear Directly From Jesus

August 29th, 2023

God speaks to His Children all day long, in many different ways. He touches our hearts through a beautiful sight, a lovely song, an endearing look on a young, innocent child's face. He also speaks to us in more specific, personal ways. Some of those ways are through a Bible passage, a holy book, a rhema or being quiet and listening for His still small voice by asking questions and engaging Jesus in every aspect of our lives.

In John 10:27-28 we read, “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand.” Amen.

Jesus began, “One of the most valuable things you can ever learn Elisabeth, and all My Heartdwellers, is to consult Me in all of your decision-making. A good place to start connecting with Me is to act on what I show you. This goes for big matters and routine, everyday matters. If you bring to Me your specific questions, while involving Me in your daily lives, then watch the radical change to how each day unfolds for the better.

“Often times by children are in a rush and lack patience in waiting on Me for instructions to your questions and issues. Together, we will solve many problems, but not if you sprint ahead and try to go it alone. If you are struggling to discern My voice, from yours or the enemy, then I will teach you. This is a gift that I desire to impart to you, one that gives Me great joy when you learn to put it to good use by practicing your gift and giving Me opportunities to speak to you.”

As a side here, I have discovered something interesting in my interactions with the Lord, and that is, after I have taken action based on what He has shown me or spoke to me about, I need to check back with Him at times to ensure that I am still proceeding in the right direction. Dear ones, the enemy would like nothing better than to knock us off course and disrupt the Lord’s plans. It is imperative to keep dialogue open and continual with Jesus in case He has something vital to add in our walk or He needs to correct a misstep of ours or point us in a new direction. Praying continually does help immensely, He loves it when we are completely dependent on Him for our every move and next step.

John and I, try to be very careful in enlisting Holy Spirit’s guidance, consistently into every task we have been given. Over the years, I have mis-stepped at times and the Lord has been swift to lovingly correct me, either through feeling convicted in my spirit or, if He really needs to get my attention, through our spiritual leaders in front of the whole community.....this, by the way, is an extremely humbling experience. One in which I don’t want repeated any time soon. Yes, dear family, God will allow us to be crushed into fine powder when we go in the wrong direction because He loves us, and it is always for the greater good.

Jesus continued, “Precious ones, do not let the storms of your lives blow you off course. If you stay on the surface of the water, that is precisely what will happen. If you dive down into the depths of the ocean with Me, the water is calm and so you shall be as well, confident in the work I am doing through you. I am your Captain and know exactly where you are presently, where you are going and what is best for you.

“My people, if you truly want to hear from Me, you must be willing to follow what I tell you, be sincere of heart and disciplined in seeking Me, distinguish My voice from your own thoughts, believe in divine instruction that you are hearing directly from your God and having the faith to act on it. I love you and look forward to an unlimited amount of in-depth conversations with you.” And that was the end of His message.

If speaking directly to Jesus and hearing from Him is new and unfamiliar to you, then we suggest, just start with a simple prayer “Jesus please help me with this project and I pray for a favorable outcome.” Wait for His answer. If you are prompted to go to the Bible, Holy Spirit will guide you to the verse He wants you to read. The Lord may give you a dream or a vision to direct your next move towards completing the project.

We have a Rhema book which is extremely helpful in getting a word from the Lord, and we are excited to announce, we just finished the Rhema II book, which will be out next month! If you have a specific question for Jesus, take your Truth and Discernment Sword from your left shoulder, raise it up and ignite it with Heaven’s light in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, encase your sword with the precious blood of Jesus and ask that this sword be infused with all the power that Heaven will grant it. Then do the sign of the cross over the book, bind the enemy from interfering, and Holy Spirit will guide you to your answer. We usually go three times to discern clear direction from the Lord.

After time spent in close union with the Lord and His Spirit, you will prayerfully see His Wisdom and put it into action, drawing closer to understanding the Lord's true heart. By the way, a brother just shared with me a beautiful song called "Jesus Have It All" by Jeremy Riddle. If you get a chance, check it out.....it will speak to your heart!

Jesus has told us on many occasions, "I give you fresh water to drink every day. Learn to recognize this water. Pay no heed to the vessel." Amen.
