

CRUSADER COMMUNICATIONS

Crusader Family,

Reflecting on our Lenten season and the gospels heard the past couple of Sundays, it brought about so many thoughts of how we can look to God for help, guidance, and how to look to each new day as a journey removing the shades of darkness working towards a transfigured life and a transformed heart. Only with continuous prayer and the grace of God, will we be open to this transfiguration of heart and life. Knowing that we have a school community built by devoted staff and students, a true family that shares the same goals and commitment to be in a safe place to pray, learn, and grow in the presence of God. That commitment will never change or falter.

As we closed this past week with our Second Trimester Awards assembly, we look to next week's Read Across America, may we embrace all that God provides. Don't forget about 8th grade and Spring pictures...spring is coming and Easter break is just a few weeks away.

Blessings for a great week ahead!
Mrs. Hodges
