

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 6, 2018

Contact: Pastor Scott Runyon: ScottR4621@me.com, 248-644-0550

Paul Keller Returns to B'Jazz Stage with Christmas Songs For Jazz Lovers

The beloved "Christmas Songs For Jazz Lovers" with Paul Keller and his seven member ensemble returns to First Baptist Church of Birmingham on Sunday, December 16, 2018 from 6-8 pm.

The concert is part of First Baptist's B'Jazz Vespers concert series started 25 years ago, bringing to downtown Birmingham some of the hottest jazz talent from the Metro-Detroit area. The B'Jazz Concert Series is free to the public and includes a free-will offering during intermission to support the artists.

Paul Keller and his friends look to prepare the hearts and ears of all for Christmas with a healthy helping of uplifting, familiar Christmas music, all presented through the prism of Paul Keller's delightful, swinging and surprising jazz arrangements.

This family-friendly, holiday concert features seven talented and dedicated musicians including: Paul Keller, Sarah D'Angelo, Paul Finkbeiner, Terry Kimura, James Hughes, Sean Dobbins and Ellen Rowe.

For more information about the band, check out www.PaulKellerJazz.com

The next B'Jazz Vespers concert in the series will be TNT Big Band with Tony DiMaria on Sunday, February 24, from 6-8 pm.

First Baptist Church of Birmingham is a congregation committed to being good neighbors to all they encounter. They recognize that all people have wounds to be healed, gifts to offer, questions to ask, and stories to share. It is a community of people who have chosen love over judgement and hostility. They are committed to listen, care, welcome, and challenge. The church building is located on the north edge of downtown Birmingham at 300 Willits St. @ Bates St. Worship is open to all and held Sunday mornings at 10:30 am.