

Gordon, David

David J. Gordon, 57, of Port Austin, died Tuesday, March 9, 2004, at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. He was born on December 25, 1946 in Port Austin, son of the late Jack and Cecilia (Krull) Gordon. David married Kay Reimann on September 10, 1966 in Port Austin. David worked as a builder for many years with his father at Jack R. Gordon Builders. He then took over the business. He remained in the building business until 1970 when he started Thumb Well Drilling. David remained very active in the family business until his last days. He served as the village clerk in Port Austin and was a long time village council member. David served as a board member of the Port Austin Fire Department, Central Huron Ambulance, and the Port Austin Area Sewer and Water Authority. He was a past member of the Port Austin Fire Department. David enjoyed spending time with family, friends and his pets. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time at the shop. David was always happy and enjoyed helping anyone anyway he could. He is survived by his wife, Kay, of Port Austin; his sons, Todd Gordon and his fiancée, Tracy, of Port Austin, Mark Gordon and his wife, Shelli, of Port Austin, and Brad Gordon and his wife, Rose, of Jackson; three brothers, Peter Gordon and his wife, Nancy, of Tucson, Arizona, Jack Gordon II and his wife, Gloria, of Troy, and Greg Gordon and his wife, Lana, of Port Austin; four sisters, Janice Warren and her husband, Robert, of Heber Springs, Arkansas, Sharon Butterworth and her husband, Tom, of Haverhill, Massachusetts, Debra Schumacher and her husband, Jim, of Port Austin, and Pamela Finan and her husband, Pat, of Vancouver, Washington; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother, Monte, and an infant sister, Patricia Ann. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 13, 2004, at the United Protestant Church in Port Austin. Burial will follow in the Port Austin Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 1 to 9 p.m. on Friday at the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde and from 9:30 to 11 a.m. on Saturday at the church.
