

NRA Benefactor Member Graham Hill currently serves as a Member of the NRA Board of Directors. In that capacity, he serves as Chairman of the Federal Affairs Committee (NRA-ILA), as well as Chairman of the Disability Shooting Sports Committee. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of the NRA Board. He serves as a Trustee of the NRA Civil Rights Defense Fund. In all of these positions he puts his 25 plus years' of legislative and legal experience in federal and state law and regulations to work on behalf of NRA's Members. In May of 2018, Graham was appointed by the Secretary of Interior to serve on the Hunting and Shooting Sports Conversation Council. The HSSCC is a joint Council of both Interior and Agriculture Departments. On the Council Graham works to permanently expand hunting and shooting across all federally owned land. Graham also serves as CEO of the Fifty Caliber Institute, and serves on the American Suppressor Board of Directors, the Hunter Leadership Forum Blue Ribbon Committee and as a Trustee of Camp Freedom.
