

FRANCIS JAMES CREWS

1916-1991

Francis J. "Bud" Crews, age 74 of Caseville, passed away suddenly Tuesday morning, June 11 at Scheurer Hospital following a probable heart attack.

He was born Nov. 24, 1916 in Dexter, Mo., son of the late William and Bertha (Singleton) Crews. He was united in marriage to Joan Meyer on Feb. 11, 1939 in Indiana.

Mr. Crews moved to Michigan with his parents as a child, settling in the Pontiac area. In the early 1930s he began working at General Motors, Pontiac, where he was an engineer in the powerhouse. He retired in 1979 after 45 years of service. That same year he and his family moved to their home in Lake Twp.

He attended Calvary Baptist Church, Caseville.

He is survived by his wife, Joan; two sons, Larry (Julia) Crews, Oxford and Gary (Marsha) Crews, Caro; seven grandchildren and two great-granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Delbert "Jack" Crews.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, June 14 at 1:30 p.m. from Calvary Baptist Church. The Rev. James Duprey, pastor, officiated, with burial in Caro.

Memorials may be given to the church.

Arrangements were handled by Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville.