

A DAY-LONG SEMINAR/CONFERENCE FOR ENVIRONMENTALISTS, HISTORIANS,
MUNICIPAL PLANNERS AND STUDENTS

OFFERED BY TIDE MILL INSTITUTE & THE GREATER ASTORIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

THE PROGRAM

- Tide mills- an industrial heritage worth paying attention to
- What's going on in the East River and around the World?
- How New York Used Tidal Energy
 - ... Some QUEENS tide mills
 - ... BROOKLYN tide mills and the Revolutionary War
 - ... Tide mills on STATEN ISLAND,
 - ... The ups and downs of the SADDLE ROCK grist mill
 - ... HUNTINGTON's Van-Wyck-Lefferts mill is still standing!
- What will it take if we want to use the tides again? ...
 - ... AN OPEN FORUM

USING NEW YORK'S TIDES

YESTERDAY, TODAY & TOMORROW

EXPLORING HOW TIDES POWERED

NEW YORK'S EARLY INDUSTRIES

HOW THEY'RE USED TODAY

& CAN BE ONCE AGAIN

SATURDAY APRIL 7TH 2000 – 9-4

GREATER ASTORIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

35-20 BROADWAY ASTORIA QUEENS NY

REGISTRATION starts at 8:30 PRESENTATIONS at 9:00

Conference Fee: $20 – LUNCH INCLUDED!

CONTACT: 718-278-0700 astorialic@gmail.com

QUESTIONS ABOUT TIDE MILLS? info@tidemillinstitute.org