Hi, Glenna! What a nice surprise to come home last night and find your books at our front door! Thank you so much! You are just wonderful, and we are sure your evening with the veterans was a huge success. What amazing people! What a difference you are making for them in telling their stories and what a difference you are also making for those who read your book! Young and old will love it. Thank you for your dedication.

We will get a check off to you right away!

Wishing you and your family a very wonderful Christmas and many blessings in 2020!

We love you!

Mac and Jane
