

Llandudno - Our Society holiday in the Kensington hotel 6th - 10th June was a great success. The hotel is excellent being situated on the seafront with far reaching views of the Great Orme headland.

The leading of the dances was shared by our Fred & Joyce, David & Wendy and Mike Savory with Jan (as Kathleen is still recovering from her knee op). The music was by two excellent musicians - David Last & Elizabeth Harrison each for 2 evenings. With over 50 dancers in attendance each evening we danced over 80 dances and our morning teaching sessions included Blues Glide, Waltz Boutique, Cameo Gavotte 1976, Saunter D'Amour, Eugene Tango and Tuesday Blues plus the very topical Waltz For The Queen. With so many interesting places of interest to visit this proved to be a great way to combine a relaxing holiday with good friends plus Old Time Dancing each evening.
