Great destruction is to happen soon

December 3rd, 2023

The Lord Jesus bless you and keep you in His peace, Heart Dwellers.

It has been a very interesting day and even a more interesting night! Oh, my goodness! Well, everyone here, not everyone, but almost everyone, come down with some kind of bug, and so we are trying to take care of them, each other as we work through our symptoms of headaches and dizziness and, well, we know that part of that is from the solar flares, it is almost in an Ex class flare that has been set off in the last couple of days by the sun. I mean I was so dizzy yesterday I was having trouble standing, and then I was nauseated and could not eat all day long, it finally let up after a while.

So, the Lord had an interesting message -Today is December first, First Friday, which has special significance to those of us who are devoted to the Sacred Heart. I came into prayer, and I said, we are here, Lord. The first words from His mouth were:

"I will deliver and protect you and be with you in trouble."

Thank You Lord.

Jesus, what is on Your precious heart?

"I am steeped in sadness for what is about to happen on this planet. The beauty and wonder of this place is about to be destroyed. What has taken thousands of years to create will in an instant be destroyed. Mankind has finally arrived at the point where he can saw off the limb he is standing on. So blinded by the acquisition of power, control and wealth- and wealth, he does not see how Satan has set him up. He thinks he is winning when in fact he will soon discover himself in an ocean of fire completely stripped. Yes, the powerful ones have been duped into thinking that Satan is their ally and will reward them with everything they have ever dreamt of, when in fact their worst nightmare is about to be fulfilled.

"Where can you go to hide from God?" The Lord asked. "The answer: NOWHERE. Their decadence, and decay and dynasty is about to implode and they will be swallowed alive in the fires that will never die. All of this breaks My Heart, for I did not intend for it to end this way. Rather, My Heart was that they would recognize they are being played.

"As for you My innocent ones, who have not plotted the destruction of your neighbor, who have not cast spells and consorted with demons to destroy the human race, you shall be protected and saved. You will be brought into eternal dwellings prepared for you since the foundation of the world. You have been forgiven and sought Me out, shall I not keep you from this hour? Indeed, I will.

"Others of you were born for this hour to rescue the remnant, instruct and pray over them. You will bring in a great harvest of souls snatched from the fire. You will educate and tutor them in My ways and they shall cleave to Me with all their hearts. Be brave and stand strong against the wave of persecution that is about to sweep the Earth in an attempt to wipe away all vestiges of righteousness. Do not be dismayed over what you see, many will be quickly in paradise with Me, their sufferings totally at an end. Rather concentrate upon your charges, the ones I have put into your hands for edification and growth and holiness.

“Earth has never experienced such trauma that is coming upon it- Earth has never experienced such trauma that is coming upon it-and how I grieve for My precious creatures caught in the midst of it.”

In that moment I was thinking of the deer, and the bunnies, and the bears and all the wild animals, and the dogs and the cats. He continued, “However, they will understand that it is for a very specific purpose that will work to their advantage in the end. I do not wish for you to see these things, Clare.”

The I saw a big Bible being opened and I heard ‘Esdras 10.’ And I looked it up- by the way, that was the end of His message.

And I wanted to say that when He says that it is for a very specific purpose, even the creatures will be destroyed and that it will work to their advantage, in Heaven, everything that God has ever created- every animal He has ever created- is in Heaven, they live in Heaven, so it is not the end, it is the beginning, the beginning of eternity.

And so, I opened to Esdras 10, which is in the unabridged Bible that the Evangelicals did not- the Protestants did not take-they took the books out but there are Bibles that have those chapters, I went to it and it is all about how the Israelites married into foreign women, with foreign beliefs, and had children with them and how detestable that was to the Lord, because the faith was compromised and so, the Lord prompted them to put away their foreign wives and foreign offspring, which must have been horribly hard, in order to save the nation.

So, a very, very sad ending for them, that is what they did, they called together everyone that had returned from Babylon, they called them all together, and in different shifts, I guess, because there were so many hundreds of people, they had to send away their wives and children that were foreign to them and of a different faith.

Well, my dear ones, I thought a great deal about this message, and it is a pretty strong message. The Lord is saying that what we have been expecting, because of what is written in Revelation, what we have been expecting for so long is about to take place. And I know that the Rapture will take place almost simultaneous with this because He has shown me that in the past, so we have very little time left on this Earth, but He has been on me about continuing to do the work He has given me to do, it is kind of hard, thinking about me finishing songs when I know that we are going to be finished down here on Earth soon.

But I also know those songs will go with us to Heaven, I will get a chance to finish them, which is exciting to me because then my voice will not warble or crack, because I have put on a good twenty years since I started recording.

The Lord bless you, dear ones, we do pray for you and hope the Lord is keeping you in His peace. Understand that with death, eternity begins, and be in the right place with the Lord and you will have a beautiful, beautiful life to look forward to with many things to do in Heaven and we will be able to visit the Earth as well, even independent of the Lord coming back with us.

And that is interesting, Ezekiel has seen that many times that we were here for the community, helping them.

The Lord bless you, dear ones, and thank you so much for your support, and for your prayers, it means everything to us.

Well, this is an interesting add-on to the message, the day of First Friday, December the first, twenty twenty-three.

Jesus was seen passing out crowns to each person in the room and also to the sick in the community, who are in hermitages here. He also pulled a card from the card file that said, 'Victory resounds in the tents of the righteous, for this night I have made sport of them in their foolish arrogance and pride. The snare they set for your foot has befallen them, and there is no remedy.'

Those Chosen To Stay After The Rapture

December 5th, 2023

Father Ephraim: As and when and how the Rapture comes and those of you who know that you have been asked to stay behind or you have offered to stay behind, in that minute, I mean in the blink of an eye, the Lord will also glorify you, your heart, your mind, your spirit, your soul, your everything about you will be new, except your new body one day and you will be walking-

Mother Clare: Infused different with grace from above but fiery grace because we have seen people after the Rapture, they were glowing.

Father Ephraim: Wow.

Mother Clare: Right?

Father Ephraim: Yes. I mean I-

Mother Clare: You were on Earth, and they were glowing, and they were just charging off into what they had to do with- without any -fear.

Father Ezekiel: With all the equipment they needed, and all the strength-I mean they had the knowledge – people will be virtually walking around, you know, faithful Christians, that have chosen to stay and offer that to the Lord, to stay and help. In that twinkling of an eye, when we are changed, they will be changed-

Mother Clare: Well-

Father Ephraim: The same way. We will go up-

Mother Clare: No not quite the same way but-

Father Ephraim: We will go up –

Mother Clare: Big pout.

Father Ephraim: We will go up in the Rapture.

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: And those of you who stay here, and your heart conviction is you want to stay here to help, you need to stay here to help, you guys are going to be the 'undercover angels' almost, you know?

Mother Clare: Heroes!

Father Ephraim: They are what?

Mother Clare: They are heroes!

Father Ephraim: I- All I can say is you are going to have- You are going to be doing things that you never thought you could do, and you will see Old Testament miracles.

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: Every morning you should get a staff and plant that staff wherever you are. Decree a thing and it shall be done, it is written. Point your staff and decree whatever it is –

Mother Clare: That is exciting, almost makes me want to stay.

Father Ephraim: Well, for one in that state nothing is impossible for them. 'Before this you have not asked in My name but ask for anything in My name and I will give it to you.' He is talking to the faithful Body of Christ, the honest, gut level-

Mother Clare: Yeah, the ones who have really given their lives to Him.

Father Ephraim: The ones who have suffered, offered, they just-they cannot help it, that is what they are called to, that is what they do. And they relieve the sufferings of so many. You will begin to raise the dead in a literal way, so even in the burnt, charred remains of whatever is here, even though the Tribulation, you will be some of the ones who bring the converts, the people that will convert to Christianity, who are trying to get through the cities and all that-

Seven years is a long time- and that first three and a half years of peace, you know it is a false peace, because it is going to break the peace treaty- right smack in the middle, and I would not want to be here for the second half of-

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: The Tribulation.

Mother Clare: Mm, Mm.

Father Ephraim: Some of our people will go through it and lead and guide others, and some will give their lives as martyrs, they have known that ahead of time.

Mother Clare: Mm-hm, hm.

Father Ephraim: We are being called to prepare the way for the Lord. Prepare the way for His coming.

Mother Clare. Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: To keep my heart true and focused on Him, just God and souls.

Mother Clare: Amen. Thank you, honey.

Jesus Takes Mother To Gaza Strip

December 7th, 2023

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for inviting us to minister with You, what an honor. Amen.

I want to share with you, my experience of being present in Gaza. When I understood that the Lord really wanted me to be present to these suffering souls in their last moments on this Earth, I told Him, 'Lord, please, I want to help.' Dear ones, I had no idea where to start, so I began by worshipping Him and getting lost in His presence.

After a very few moments of that, as my eyes were closed, I saw a young Palestinian toddler, crying and walking towards me. I immediately found myself picking him up and comforting him. The Lord gave me to know that his parents were dead. I felt so badly for the little guy and wanted to nurse him, but I knew I did not have any milk. Just then someone, most likely a helping angel, presented me with a warm milk bottle from over my right shoulder. The little guy took it immediately and was calmed. I prayed over and baptized him and again from my right, an angel took him tenderly in his arms and ascended upwards.

On another occasion, while I was waiting on the Lord in prayer, I began to make out a little girl who was about six or seven years old and she was in tremendous pain. Her leg had been crushed under the concrete and sealed. I called upon the anesthesia angels, who are blue in color, to come and help her. She was totally smitten with the light coming from us, the Lord and my heart and was eager to embrace Him. I stroked her hair, baptized her as well, and was soon shown another vision of the collapsed high rise where one floor had caved into another. I was drawn there and had several more experiences with people of different ages. They were eager to embrace Jesus because of the tremendous light coming from Him as well as His great love and tenderness.

And there is another experience that I just remembered, where I was transported into a room, and I believe I shared this with you in another message- a large living room, and there were bodies all over the floor, most of them were terribly injured and dying, some were already dead, but as I bent down to pray for them and baptize them, the Lord showed me that they truly were getting the sacraments they needed to be able to end up in Heaven. I went from one to another lying on the floor, and the light that was coming from Jesus disarmed them so much they were eager to embrace Him and to receive Him.

I will again avail myself to the Lord's work and wait on Him to direct me, but at least now I have some kind of idea of what He is asking of us. My dear ones, try not to be too timid or afraid, the Lord is asking for helpers in this devastated area, to save as many souls as He can. Therefore, if you are volunteering and have a heart to assist Him, do not be afraid of deception. Surely, He will not give you a snake (that is, a lying vision) when you are asking Him for a fish, (a soul that needs rescuing.)

I am just beginning this process with Him, even though we have done some of these things in the past, but He has only revealed to me a few things to do, basically, the light the souls will see coming off of Him and you, will cause their natural rejection of Him to come down, and they will be open. I believe He is asking us to comfort them, ask them to forgive those who have hurt them, and be sorry for their sins, then give them an absolution, and the eucharist, assuring them of His love and their place in Heaven for eternity.

Trust in His faithfulness and allow Him to come and direct your footsteps to work with Him and gather as many souls as can be gathered in this hour, into His kingdom. Angels will be present to you as you search out the wounded and dying. What an honor it is to work beside the Lord for these souls. Bring Him joy, Heart Dwellers, allow yourself to be led by Him. It is a co-redeeming work, not because you are directly responsible for Heaven opening, that was done by Jesus alone on the cross, but because you are delivering a message makes you a co-redeemer, without your intervention to present the message to them, that soul may not have gone to Heaven.

My other suggestion in these perilous times, has to do with the increase in witchcraft and curses landing on people. We have learned that we can open doors curses to land. Anytime you sin, you have an open door and many of us have no idea how proud we really are. The Lord has told me that if I am meek and humble of heart, loving souls unconditionally, I would not need to pray the binding prayer, I would be protected. In fact, He said that the angles would rush to protect a meek soul. Judgement and criticism are some of our worst faults that automatically open the door for demons standing in line to curse us. So, whenever I feel that I have fallen short, I pray that the troubles caused by my errors could be applied to saving the very witch that cursed me. This is just a suggestion, but we all practice it.

Just then, the Lord spoke to me and said, “Clare, I honor this effort of yours. There are many who are beginning to question the powers of witchcraft because of this practice, there have been conversions.” All of your community members’ prayers are honored, this is a good practice that does bear fruit. I am with you, Heart Dwellers, as you show compassion towards those who hate you without any reason. You are also growing in charity and holiness; this is so pleasing to Me.”

And that was the end of His message. Thank You, Lord.

Minister to the War Torn Souls

December 11th, 2023

Hello Lord Jesus, please give us the faith to walk with You into those places where the greatest sorrows are and to minister to the broken and dying. Amen.

Well, I want to share with you that the illustration on this video was made over thirty years ago, when the Lord told me that someday I would walk among the wounded and dying to give them hope. And now He has brought that to pass in the sense that He is taking us by the hand and leading us into war torn areas like the Gaza Strip and the border of Russia to minister to people who have no hope and some of them that are dying.

And I shared that with the community and several people in the community have already experienced that and are open to it and we have talked about this before, it really is strictly a matter of faith in what the Lord is doing and I kind of had to brush up on my faith today I guess you could say today .Actually, I went into worship this morning and I was really sitting with the Lord, He was very close to my heart, I had the monstrance with the Blessed Sacrament in it close to my heart and I was singing and worshipping Him.

And in the process of doing that, suddenly, I saw a little boy, a little toddler, dirty and crying and half naked walking, looking for his parents who had been killed in this war that happened in Gaza. And it was just so lost and confused and crying out, and my heart just went out to him and in the spirit, I walked over to him and picked him up and held him in my arms and comforted him and someone handed me a milk bottle from over my shoulder and I gave it to this child and he began drinking it and I prayed for the baby and comforted it and prayed and comforted it and prayed, hoping that he would be healed from this horrible experience, if he survived.

Later in this vision I saw an angel come down and take him up. Ezekiel and I have talked about this, he believes that it was Limbo where he was taken. I am not sure, but a lot of children were there, it was beautiful and cheerful. Ezekiel has been saying that they are taken there to be acquainted with Jesus, get to know Jesus, and then they would be admitted into Heaven. Now these are basically Muslim children, babies.

The Lord began. He said, "I am not forcing you, My Brides; I am inviting you into My family to reach those without hope. Allow your hearts to go out to them. Follow your instincts to comfort and console. If possible, ask them to forgive. Love does not-Love does so much for their souls. My light will shine through you, and they will just naturally respond, not even knowing why they are responding. Then that is the time to introduce Me to them and My love that forgives all offenses.

So, I was given a word from Mother Elisabeth from the Lord through Mother Elisabeth about this very subject. And I have not published it yet, but I will share it with you. So, these are the words of Jesus to Mother Elisabeth, very, very accurate in prophecy.

The Lord began, "My dearest Clare, I have given you a wonderful gift I would like you and others to please exercise more frequently and with greater fervor. In these perilous times, travelling in the spirit to those who suffer trauma and are experiencing spiritual distress need My love, mercy and healing hand to work through you, my little instrument, to these precious souls, before it is too late. Your intervening on their behalf is of great importance to Me. I need you to join Me in snatching these dear ones from the devils' grasp. When My love for these souls and your love for them are united, it is a powerful and very effective holy cord that extends from our combined hearts to their heart. The light that bursts forth from our divine union shines so brightly into their souls, that it is completely disarming and stops them dead in their tracks.

"This death is their old self being shed, and they are instantaneously enveloped in the feeling of the life-giving light of love, of healing, and of My infinite mercy. Do this for Me, my beloved one, be My co-redeemer, and you will undergo the transforming power of your holy authority in Me. Your soul, and the redeemed soul, will be intertwined for all of eternity. You would have the Heavenly opportunity to be with them up into the final judgment, the day of reckoning.

"As it is written, I will come in glory and sit on My throne before all the nations. Before Me, all nations will be gathered, and I will separate the sheep from the goats. I will say to the sheep on My right, come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world, and the goats will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous, into eternal life. Help Me, My precious ones, help Me."

And that was the end of His message.

So, He is reaching out to all Heart Dwellers at this point, not just myself or those in the community up here on the mountain but to all of you.

"I am accompanying your encounters with brilliant light and a feeling of Heavenly love so it will circumvent the arguments that so quickly put an end to Me. That light being as strong as it is will so overwhelm them that they will forget to argue about anything. This is the power of My Grace, which comes through your obedience.

"You may feel shaky at first but allow yourself time to get used to where you are and what you are doing. In time, all of this will be second nature to you, and you will not have time to think, you will just respond to the situation in love and comfort. What you need will be supplied to you, just as Clare experienced the hungry toddler, and the bottle was given by an angel and that calmed this little soul.

“Some will seem quite alive; others will be in transition-

Dying. Physically dying.

“But still aware enough to follow your words which they will hear in their native tongue. The whole point is that I, Jesus, care and have come to them in their last moments, loving and helping them, inviting them to come with Me, to trust Me and the comfort I will bring to their bodies, until they just fall away, so to speak, and drift into My arms or taking My hand go with Me. The soul knows that what is going on is holy and safe, the intellect and all arguments against Me will be suspended at that time or they would not be able to come with Me.

“Your demeanor will be trustworthy and sincere, releasing them from all their fears. You must act quickly, because there are many souls you will need to reach. Be flexible in seeing what is around you and what you are being prompted to do. This is a skill I will call upon in My Brides, many times, so please do not be reluctant to yield to the inspiration.

“Clare, even the hard cases will react to your love, and light that will shine from within and without you. Do not be afraid of their reactions, you are being protected. Have only love and compassion in your heart for their terrible predicament. I will come on the heels of your touch, to bring them into My house.

“So many of you Heart Dwellers around the world can be doing this. Are you confined to a bed? You can do this. Are you unable to travel? I will take you by the hand to travel with Me. Whatever your state, all that is needed is a heart of encouragement and unbiased love. The rest will come quite naturally. If you persevere and wait on Me, it will eventually happen. It is your love for others that makes this possible. You must have that heart and I will handle the mechanics of how it is done. Nothing is impossible to those who believe, ask of Me and I will supply the faith.

“By the way, this is not astral travel as is practiced by many New Ageres. No, this is holy translation totally dependent on your faith in Me. Truly you walk by faith, not by sight. We will do this together.”

And that was the end of His message.

brothers and sisters and Heartdwellers Family. May you all be blessed.

Know Yourself Better Than Satan Knows You

December 12th, 2023

Lord Jesus, please help us to know ourselves so that the enemy cannot manipulate us and throw us off track. Amen.

Jesus began, “When souls are protective and have buttons they can so easily get pushed, there is a problem with moving forward, because no matter what situation they find themselves in, Satan will exploit their weaknesses and they will fail. When you prove your love for them, you can then begin to deal with that stronghold. If there is a tumor, surgery must be employed to stop the spread of that disease, or they will be crippled for life.

“Every one of you have buttons. Some are hot, others are flat. It is your responsibility to know yourself as well as Satan knows you, or you will forever be blocked in every endeavor.

There is a stronghold of pride in all of you. Each day is an opportunity to overcome that because I allow you to be tested.

“If you come to Me and ask Me to be made holy, I take you seriously. I arrange situations for you that will expose the pride so you can see where you are at. Each morning you come to Me to be made anew, and each morning I speak to your soul to prepare you for the day’s tests. What is permissible in the world, is not permissible in Heaven. I am preparing you for Heaven. If you wish to heal others, you must first be healed, and no surgery is pleasant at the time, but afterwards when you are free from pain, you are happy to have had the surgery.

“The very things you have experienced in your childhood, most others have also experienced, and once you are healed, you can help them as well. Satan knows all the hot points and sooner or later, in a critical moment he will use them against you, that is why you must conquer your pride layer by layer before I can trust you to work with other souls.

“The difference between Satan and the doctor, is that he comes to wound you, and I, the doctor, come to heal you. One presses on the button to crush you, the other cuts the button to heal you. Do you want to be healed?

Well then, every vestige of pride must be conquered, not all at once but in layers. When you know you are loved, and your faults are exposed, it is best to chastise yourself for giving way to pride, and once and for all conquer it.

“I want each of you to look at each other and see that you are less in their eyes, and the eyes of others so you will have nothing at all to defend and in everything you fall short. This is easy to do when you know My great love for you. Your person is secure in My Love, I honor and adore you, so what can man do to you when the Almighty loves and approves of you? You have no need of respect from men, just as I had no need. Therefore, you come to the point where you have nothing to defend, no pretense to be respected, because you are already full of Me.

“Anger is vicious, and it drains your spirit and forces you into bitterness and resentment. These are the effects of pride which must be conquered, or you will forever find yourself tossed about from here to there, and never succeed in the dreams and plans of your life.

And I answered the Lord here and said, Oh Lord, I see now why Ezekiel is the perfect husband for me. I have been humiliated over and over again. I did not want to see my pride, or my faults and I was forced to acknowledge them. The anger caused bitterness, resentment, and a desire to retaliate. I could not handle these things as a mature Christian who acknowledges their weaknesses, I just had to defend myself, but I am so grateful to be learning the right way to respond and not being thrown into a fit of anger.

“Jesus continued, “You, Clare, were a very hard case, especially because of the way it was delivered. But when a soul knows there is an attitude there and they do not want it, I begin to remove it and gently admonish you to be grateful for the correction, no matter how it is delivered.

“Truly I love you all, but you know how painful it is when even I must correct you. But you also know how deep My love and commitment is to you and that I do nothing out of spite or anger. I say what I say BECAUSE I love you. And it may take you a while to get over it, but in the end, you are much better off and equipped to handle yourself and not allow Satan to sway you, one way or another. Never lose sight of the fact that you are always in formation, being prepared for Heaven, and that you are My Joy.”

And that was the end of His message.

Maimed Children

December 15th, 2023

Mother Clare: Ok. This is about children who have been hit with phosphorous, terribly burned and maimed. Some of them killed, others just maimed horribly. And it is happening, we are not sure exactly, but I think- we think Belarus. Well, they were put in a hospital, and then, whoever had done that atrocious thing, went and bombed the hospital. It is in a full hospital- it was an old hospital, and one of the wards was totally children-

Father Ephraim: Children from six and under.

Mother Clare: Children from six and under.

Father Ephraim: Pediatric unit.

Mother Clare: Yeah, pediatric unit.

Father Ephraim: That was when the Passion first started.

Mother Clare: That was when the Passion first started.

Father Ephraim: Horrendous rain started here.

Mother Clare: Horrendous rain started here.

Father Ephraim: And thunder.

Mother Clare: And thunder.

Father Ephraim: Thunder like most of you have never heard,

Mother Clare: Thunder like most of you have never heard.

Father Ephraim: Three times the Lord- It feels like bombs were going off – It felt like bombs were going off all around us.

Mother Clare: It felt like bombs were going off all around us, yeah.

Father Ephraim: The Lord always confirms in His Word, the second or third witness-

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: Is it recording?

Mother Clare: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: The Lord always confirms His word with a second or third witness. And these children- men, women and children- everywhere in the whole region- the whole region-where the war, in real time, is going on- and proxy wars- little wars, regional wars, every day these children, every day, every night, all they know is fear. And some of these bombs, rockets, do carry phosphorous and burns their little skin, even through the bone. It is a horrible suffering, horrible, long, terrible way to die. And my trust is that the Lord is taking them to Himself because I have never heard Him cry like He cried and is crying today.

Father Ephraim continues: We cannot think about ourselves anymore, we have to stop thinking about ourselves and be there for them, some way, somehow. Some of you will have services, some of you will have Masses, Jesus' Body and Blood offered on the altar, these little children like a holocaust, like the first Holy Innocents that died in the massacre of Bethlehem.

Please- Please Lord, help us to stop thinking about ourselves and our problems that keep us so divided and so busy and our pain and our suffering because it is nothing like what they are going through, and have been going through, and will go through, and worse. Please, please- no more suffering! Some of you will hold them, some of you will sing to them, but help them, PLEASE help them.

Father Ephraim: We cannot complain anymore, and we cannot be selfish and self- centered anymore.

Mother Clare: Going up and down the internet.

Father Ephraim: Tucking away in our corners, going up and down You Tubes and internet and whatever. We cannot do that. How can we know what they are going through and be so selfish and forget so easy? No more talking and being selfish and complaining. Please- if you do not pour out your lives for these, the least of them, you have turned, I have turned, we have turned our back on them, and He dies over and over, all over again, how many nails will we put back, how many times will we pin Him to that cross? How many times while I stand away while He is whipped and beat?

While they are dying, suffering, living in terror day and night, please- please help us Lord, please help, please give us that grace to stop complaining and sinning and being foolish- I would give anything- everything-

Father Ephraim: You are not remembering anything I have told you.

Mother Clare: Yes, I am remembering everything, I just need to get the word out.

Father Ephraim: Can you write somebody-

Mother Clare: Yeah, yeah, I am-

Father Ephraim: The details on a piece of paper-

Mother Clare: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: Please-

Mother Clare: All right. I have got it.

Father Ephraim: We have got to wake up!

Mother Clare: Yeah, we are not ready for the Lord-

Father Ephraim: Oh, we are not ready for anything!

Mother Clare: Coming for us. We are not ready.

Father Ephraim: And neither are most of the Heart Dwellers around the world-

Mother Clare: Right.

Father Ephraim: We are all driving in our own lane. It is human nature, I am sure, and our weakness but He can help us not to be like this. My God, what is it going to take?

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: You had better put out a message and do it now.

Mother Clare: Ok, all right.

Father Ephraim: Do it now!

Mother Clare: Ok, honey.

Earthquakes-Meteor Hit-Fire-Ghost Town

December 21st, 2023

Hello Mother Clare: Ok, so last week you saw New York City covered by an orange-colored mist. Is that it, honey? Or was it the whole coast?

Father Ephraim: New York City. And I will just explain it the best I can. It is as if the Earth's plates beneath fractured and were pushing against each other and that caused untold ripple effects from under the surface of the city. In fact, there was a place on one of the plates had turned part of the city up on its side.

Mother Clare: Now, this was not San Francisco.

Father Ephraim: I seen this on both coasts.

Mother Clare: Ah, San Francisco and New York.

Father Ephraim: San Francisco was spared up the Oregon coast, Washington and British Columbia, it looked like something had just taken those high sea ledges and they were just cracked off of the Earth, they were just cracked, and kept falling into the sea, you could see some of the basic rock that was underground from plates or whatever, but it just- the coastline was real jagged.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And you know, it was beat up pretty bad, whatever was left –

Mother Clare: That went up from San Francisco to Vancouver, you said?

Father Ephraim: San Francisco up to British Columbia, the Pacific Coast.

Mother Clare: Ok, so there was an orange fog over the city of New York and the plates had collided and formed a mountain range?

Father Ephraim: You could see even up underneath the plates if you were one side or another. I do not know about a mountain range, all I know is the plates, these Teutonic plates-

Mother Clare: Uh-huh.

Father Ephraim: You know, Teutonic energy just-were pushing and pushing and pushing and even the plates that would not break but go up on there. It was straight up.

Mother Clare: On their side?

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: You said –

Father Ephraim: That covers Canada as well.

Mother Clare: So where did it go from-

Father Ephraim: Probably from New Jersey up through New York and into part of Canada. What started it was a plate from a meteor ripped off and entered our atmosphere. The meteor did not, but the plate that broke off did.

Mother Clare: Wow!

Father Ephraim: It was huge! And when I saw the impact, it literally had a deep impact because it- it not only did damage on the United States side and Canada, but it caused huge backlash tsunamis going the other way toward the coast of England.

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: When I got to the area of Europe, I was out from the globe a bit, but I seen these fissures just beginning to form from North to South through Europe and other places in the world, and I turned my head to the side and tried to rest a bit and I looked up. The reason I looked up was a glint of something in my peripheral- in a vision I might still have-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: And these-these fissures were coming down to places like Scandinavia, you know, East and Western Europe and in many other parts of the world but they were close together, they were not wide, they were really deep, and the flashes I kept seeing were literal flames of fire coming up out of these fissures.

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: And an enormous amount of energy would have to cause, I mean, it would take a lot to imagine the force of energy to do that, like cracking an eggshell, you know?

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: All that tells me the plates are shifting, the Earth is on that small wobble, you guys talked about, and the Scriptures talk about how the Earth would reel and rock like a drunkard.

Mother Clare: Do you think it was a plate in the asteroid or whatever that was that caused this? Did it happen in sequence or did it-

Father Ephraim: It accelerated other events around the world, seismic, Teutonic, it was like the whole face of the Earth with water intrusion-

Mother Clare: You started out talking about there was some kind of water intrusion on the Hudson, but it was coming on the inland towards the coast?

Father Ephraim: Yeah, that was strange, the Hudson River reversed course, and was filling up the cities left and right and-

Mother Clare: You mean-

Father Ephraim: Was washing out into the sea, not coming out of the sea.

Mother Clare: You are saying 'reverse course.' You mean it went upstream from the Hudson River, or downstream?

Father Ezekiel: From the water intrusions, all the rivers flooded their banks, including the Hudson, but it reversed at one point- maybe I do not understand-

Mother Clare: Maybe it was a lift of a plate or something that caused it to go back the other way.

Father Ephraim: Yeah.

Mother Clare: And then you said there was fire all over New York City or-

Father Ephraim: Nothing but absolute rubble on top of rubble and top- you know, orange smoke, orange gasses and it just looked like a ghost town, it was coming, you know, something that was being hit, your city, half hit on land and half of that plate, meteor plate, hit the ocean. New York seemed to be like the center spot, you know, ground zero where the thing hit, it was so huge, that is why it affected Canada and further down, New Jersey and maybe even the D.C. area.

Mother Clare: Was there fire coming up through the fissures?

Father Ephraim: There was some in the United States but nothing like over in Europe.

Mother Clare: I remember once before you told me South New York City on fire, and I told you, you know, there was a volcano in New York, it made sense to you. Ok.

Father Ephraim: The things are accelerating, so I am not naming days and claiming dates on anything. I see things and experience them in the past, present and future coming eternally, and all I can say is it is by God's mercy that any of this has been held back this long.

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: I mean, somewhere down the line we got a little more time.

Mother Clare: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: Every day is a borrowed day.

Mother Clare: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: So, use it well.

Mother Clare: Right.

A New Earth

December 27th, 2023

Sister Anna: Ok. So, Papa, I heard that you have a couple of dreams, and I am pretty sure that you would like to share it, and, yeah, so I would like for you to share with the audience what you dreamed last night.

Father Ephraim: Wow, you made it really special- really special. The first dream I had, I went to a friend that I know very well in England, and I recognized their house where they raised their children, you know, like this is the first house they ever had, right?

Sister Anna: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: And they were not there anymore, of course, they had moved on and their kids had grown and stuff. Anyway, so I went back to the old house, the original house. And I was expecting to see a little farm, you know, sheep, like they used to have it, and it was all kind of grown up in weeds-

Sister Anna: Right.

Father Ephraim: But it still had the family name, that they made from metal, you know, like over the driveway where they pull the car in?

Sister Anna: Sure.

Father Ephraim: Anyway. So, I am looking around I am thinking, 'Oh yeah, they are not here, this is like, you know, forty years later, and of course they would not be here.

Sister Anna: Chuckles.

Father Ephraim: And when I saw the name but I- in England, in England- it was like there were all these- and even in that yard- all these Taoist, Buddhist, like it was like a special- It was like they made like a special cemetery outside of the weeds.

Sister Anna: Mm, Ok.

Father Ephraim: So, they had like the shiva with all the arms, that is Hindu-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: And it was like Buddhist and Hindu signs and symbols, like all over the place, and I realized 'Oh my gosh, even this graveyard has been here for a while so, a lot of people who were like Buddhist and Hindu were living in England.

Sister Anna: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And I did not see any British people, I did not hear any British people, all I saw were our Oriental brothers and sisters who had been living on that land already-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: And so much so that they had grown old and died and then buried in the cemeteries, it was like it is England, but it was like being somewhere like in – I do not know – like India or China or you know, kind of a mix.

Sister Anna: So, you are a hundred percent sure that in that dream you believe you are in England, right?

Father Ephraim: I knew it, I could feel it, I could smell it, I know their house, I know their yard, I know their kids, I know how that house was-

Sister Anna: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And I was surprised to show up and they were not there, and the whole land not only had the people changed, but the people groups also changed-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: But it was very, very green.

Sister Anna: It was green.

Father Ephraim: It was green. And you could not recognize England like it looks on a map.

Sister Anna: Huh.

Father Ephraim: But I knew I was in England, but the whole Earth, nothing, I could not see anything like a globe of the Earth. I could not tell what any country was, everything looked so different.

Sister Anna: So, what you are telling me and what I am understanding is that- Did you see it from like an aerial point of view, if I may ask?

Father Ephraim: Yeah, I saw it both ways, I saw it, you know, straight up, it was all around me, and in this-when I have dreams, they kind of zoom in-

Sister Anna: Mm, yeah.

Father Ephraim: But then they zoom way out like you can see the curve of the Earth, even from an airplane sometimes you get high enough that you can kind of make out certain countries or landscape changes or whatever. So, yeah, I saw it in both ways.

Sister Anna: Wow!

Father Ephraim: Both up close- I was standing right there, you know, even the cemetery was starting concrete, like a concrete slab where they used to burn little candles- The populations and the people had changed, but what gave me hope was everything was so green. It was like the new Earth.

Sister Anna: Wow!

Father Ephraim: It really was like the new Earth. Like the thousand-year reign, the Millennium. What we are going to go into is amazing- So that was the first dream.

Sister Anna: Ok, so far, what do you get from that first dream before we get into the second dream, like what is the impression that it put on you, like, if all we had was a hidden meaning in it, is what I am saying? And I want to know if the Lord has revealed it to you in any way.

Father Ephraim: The Lord knows that children's books and youth channels and things like that really stick to me because I can understand –

Sister Anna: Chuckles.

Father Ephraim: It is very simple. And so, He speaks to me in simple ways, I have dreams that are very simple.

Sister Anna: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And usually very short. So as far as hidden meanings and stuff, you guys pray about it and the Lord may speak twenty different ways to twenty different Heart Dwellers out there.

Sister Anna: Wow. Yeah, you guys could probably understand my dreams- probably a mystery dream, so-

Father Ephraim: Are you interested in what we call a segway, which is like a little joiner between what-sometimes you will have one dream –

Sister Anna: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And then just a little short something, and then we will go into a second dream.

Sister Anna: Yeah, I think we are ready for the second one. What else do you have in your pocket?

Father Ephraim: Yeah, well, see, the first one was a good one, the Earth had changed, totally, the Equator, everything. I mean, where we live in these mountains of United States, you know, the Earth that was so totally different, split right down the middle, you know, waters would rise- I am telling you, it is true. But the hillies- the hills- the hillies- I know what it looked like- it looked like everything was starting to grow back to the point of "they need to trim those weeds-

Sister Anna: Ahhh!

Father Ephraim: Clean it up a little bit." But the people were not in the Oriental countries, they were in America, they were in England-

Sister Anna: So, so far are you saying the second dream? Is this the dream you had?

Father Ephraim: It leads into the second dream. Now, this does not concern any race, creed, color or ethnicity, you know, any of that. It simply concerns America.

Sister Anna: Hm.

Father Ephraim: And after this great water way, I mean the waters from the glaciers and the waters from the oceans heating and rising came in, this is in the future, you know-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: Maybe near future, I do not know.

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: But if the Earth changes, then there is like a huge water way that has literally split the United States, and I have seen that for months.

Sister Anna: Hm.

Father Ephraim: All your visions and dreams and experiences, I mean experiences like you really feel like you are there, you can feel the air against your face-

Sister Anna: Mm, man.

Father Ephraim: You are there – In fact, I remember one of the dreams where I was like ‘I need to call home, let her know I am coming home.’ You know I was thinking I was here in the mountains or somewhere, but everything was lower, very green fields, and they had these little stands with home grown vegetables-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: You have probably heard this before. And I asked one of the men, and they looked, you know, Oriental. I said, “I need- can I borrow your phone. I need to call my wife and tell her that I am coming home. I will not be long, you know, but I do not even know how to get back to America.”

Sister Anna: Mm.

Father Ephraim: And he looked at me and said, “But you are IN America”.

Sister Anna: Wow!

Father Ephraim: Totally different.

Sister Anna: Sure.

Father Ephraim: Totally different climate, you know, totally- I mean farms and fields, and clean, nice, you know?

Sister Anna: So, from what I was understanding, your second dream, you said it consists of, you said, you called it, quote unquote, a water way, that split America, is that what you said?

Father Ephraim: A water way that came either quickly or gradually, maybe it was waters of the deep or the plates of the Earth-

Sister Anna: Yeah.

Father Ephraim: Shaking like an earthquake, but glaciers melt, and they come down, that water has got to go somewhere.

Sister Anna: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: And they probably went down, maybe the Mississippi River, it is the best I can tell you and it is the biggest river in America, and you know what-

Sister Anna: All right guys, thank you so much for listening, see you again next time.

Father Ephraim: We love you!

Sister Anna: We love you guys!

Dream-America Split- Water

December 30th, 2023

Father Ephraim: Mm. Ok. What is your first question?

Mother Clare: The second dream that you had- What was it about?

Father Ephraim: The second dream was something that I have seen for months, probably the last couple of years now, but especially this last year. You all have heard it, parts of it, where, well it- I just recorded the segment on England, and like, the Earth was regenerating, and people groups were in different places, and you could not describe or find any continental country that you recognized.

Mother Clare: Huh.

Father Ephraim: From out- you know I would zoom in, and then I would be like out, looking at the globe.

Mother Clare: But it was green, right?

Father Ephraim: But it was so green, so green. And it seemed that it had been that way for some time, because there were weeds growing in places, you know, yeah, when I did the earlier tape, the first segment, the first and second- you will pick that up. So, now there is a little segway in between.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: And the segway, the hook up with the dreams is, I kept seeing cargo going down this enormous, you know, divide, in the North American continent, you know, Canada, America, all the way down where the glaciers had melted, that kind of thing.

Mother Clare: Hm.

Father Ephraim: And I talked a little bit with Little Mother about this. But I saw cargo going down the river on these kind of grayish, kind of- I do not know what kind of material that they used to make them but obviously the Western part of what used to be America, you know we all had to kind of rebuild or whoever was there, even the quote, unquote armies and people like that, they did not just magically have all of their equipment and high tech stuff. They had what was left after a war-

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: And they were rebuilding and trying to come back from that. Even though-

Mother Clare: Hang on a minute.

Father Ephraim: There was an internal war, in America, in the United States. So, as we moved- as I moved, just- I found myself here, there, wherever- and things were coming back and they were green but there was this great divide, this great river in the middle, that had come down from melted glaciers, heating, water intrusions, whatever, and even the plates shifting and pushing, plates pushing away from each other.

Mother Clare: Huh.

Father Ephraim: And water goes to the lowest place, so it is going to fill that in. Basically, it was, you know, which you have heard before, what was left of the Eastern states in the United States, or the East Coast, coming in right about to where the edge of the Mississippi, largest river where it was.

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: But because of the Earth changes- Tectonic, you know-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Volcanoes, earthquakes, war, whatever- the United States of America was just different. The Western part was larger, and the Eastern part was smaller, with our main Mississippi River and its other rivers and tributaries-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Just overflowed and changed the whole landscape.

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: And mountains literally had come down, valleys were filled in- I did not see any mountains except the-

Mother Clare: Rockies.

Father Ephraim: Except the ones where the refuges are around the world that were somehow protected from all this kind of stuff. So, anyway, remnants of mountains, I would say-

Mother Clare: Hm.

Father Ephraim: And uh-

Mother Clare: Are the Rockies still there? The Rocky Mountains?

Father Ephraim: Just -no, not, not as we know them.

Mother Clare: Really?

Father Ephraim: Yeah, just the southern- southern part-

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: Of the Rocky Mountain range. There had been so much activity, earth changes, you name it-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: And then war on top of that. And then a civil war in this- you know it became the Republic –

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: And the Eastern part was called the Union.

Mother Clare: Hm.

Father Ephraim: The Republic-

Mother Clare: Mm.

Father Ephraim: The New Republic, by the way- of the United States-

Mother Clare: Wow.

Father Ephraim: And the Eastern Union, which they still called the United States, and back and forth.

Mother Clare: The New Wake Republic of America, probably, huh?

Father Ephraim: Mmmmm, yeah, yeah, yeah, I am just- I am struggling for words here, but yeah.

Mother Clare: Ok.

Father Ephraim: New Republic of America, Eastern Union of, whatever, the United States- there was a definite divide. It was not like our last Civil War, you know, The Rebels and the Yankees, of the North and the South, this was like- huge. And there was a lot of busy activity going up and down the rivers, downriver, and then up against the current, like the smaller boats and things, and they were carrying cargo back and forth but a lot of it was kind of on rafts, rafted-these little barges –

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Bucks that look like they had been loaded, and you could tell, they were ammunitions, the remnants of what they had of tanks and military equipment or whatever, you know, shipping them downriver, and then bringing food and supplies back upriver from the southern part of where this big water divide was.

Mother Clare: Hm.

Father Ephraim: And I remember now clearly, this is one of those experiences you have in a dream, you are there, you really can smell it, feel it, you are there. It was like the clouds-

Mother Clare: Mm-hm.

Father Ephraim: Thank you again for being with us, see you next time.

Mother Clare: Mm.
