							This is only a guide of animals that MAY be legal in a state. Due to the extensive amount of laws involved that are constantly changing, UAPPEAL cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information. Users are responsible for checking all laws BEFORE getting an animal.

SUMMARY: Nongame birds are banned. Game birds are legal with a captive game bird license if captive-born. Fur-bearing animals are considered domestic if pen-raised more than 2 generations or imported from breeder and is considered agricultural pursuit; rest are banned from sale or purchase. May not physically alter a fur-bearing animal except descenting a skunk. For wild-caught fur-bearing animals, one raccoon, skunk, red or gray fox, coyote or jackrabbit is legal as a pet. Bullfrogs and non-threatened/endangered turtles are considered game and are legal to take. Nondomestic animals (nondomestic felines, canines, bears, weasel family, hyenas, aardwolves, nondomestic even-toed ungulates (Artiodactyla), tapirs, rhinos, Asian and African elephants, nonhuman primates, and any hybrids) require a permit.

* Native Species Lists Birds	Wildlife of South Dakota (DNR) South Dakota - Species Checklist (South Dakota Birds and Birding)

DISCLAIMERS:

* The laws listed above lists whether a species to legal to possess and import according to state laws and then any federally protected species with stricter regulations than the state. Be sure to review all federal laws as some ban certain species as pets or make it legal to possess a species but bans their interstate import in commerce or purchasing across state lines (you can still move with your animals across state lines).

*For states that do allow keeping wild-caught native species as pets, it is usually limited to game birds, game animals, furbearers, reptiles, amphibians and invertebrates. Such taking usually requires some type of hunting or fishing license in addition to any required captive wildlife permits. All laws must be followed, including daily bag and possession limits, seasons, size limits and location specific regulations.

* These guides are usually based on state fish & game laws, state agriculture and health import laws, and marine resource laws except when otherwise noted. Check laws for all requirements. Additional state laws may apply, including general animal control and care, livestock, and other health laws.
