Pastoral thoughts

God addresses His living Word to His believers. It shouldn't stay unanswered. All of us have our own approaches and interpretations about it according to our God given graces. God's creature is powerful and strong with graces God gives him/her. Our life itself is an area of the spiritual activities first of all because divine graces are for spiritual service. There are lots of things to do in this life but as the apostle Paul says: "Everything is permissible," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible," but not everything is edifying." (1 Corinthians 6-12)

The faith will be the greatest answer towards God's call. The faith always keeps you with God. It's with you when you feel strong and successful and also it's with you when you feel weak and failed in your mission, bodily and spiritually. We are allowed to do everything and the choice is ours. But the thing is when you do something wrong you feel guilty and like you haven't done anything but when you do something good, big or small it brings you spiritual satisfaction which makes you feel the communication between you and God.

Our attitude towards phenomena surrounding us is very important. It is a vivid reflection of our approaches. We act according to our wishes and feelings which give a special and unique appearance to our essence. Any kind of demonstration is an answer to God's call because when we do something we do it with the feeling of responsibility to make a decision between good and bad. It's not easy to refuse sinful desires.

Hunger for God's Word is incompatible with the desire for sin. That's why the apostle Peter calls us to reject sinful desires—they are deadly obstructions to a healthy biblical truth. He writes, "Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. <sup>2</sup> Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, <sup>3</sup> now that you have tasted that the Lord is good." (1 Peter 2:1-2)

11th Annual Armenian Shish-Kabob Luncheon

The Ways & Means Committee sponsored the luncheon on Sunday, October 6, at the Elks Lodge in Visalia. We changed the menu from lamb to beef filet, and this seemed to be well received. The number of meals served was 615, down from 685 in 2018. A report of income will follow when available. The Faith of Zion organization sold sarma and pastries during the luncheon and reportedly did well. The Committee wishes to thank all who helped prepare and serve at the event. Your help is greatly appreciated.

BEEF SHISH KABOB FOR SALE

Ways and Means has Beef Shish Kabob for Sale. There are four skewers per package for $20. If you wish to purchase, please contact the church office at (559) 528-6892. Make check payable to St. Mary Armenian Church.

Ladies Society News

Birthday wishes for November goes out to Margie Lynn Davidian and Sylvia Yahnian. We wish them both God's blessings.

Sadly, we offer our condolences to member Hasmik Enfiedjian for the loss of her mother Mary Enkababian. Mary was a faithful member of our Ladies Society for 19 years. She graciously volunteered her time for the benefit of our organization. Her smile, hugs, and generosity will be missed. May she rest in peace.

The date of our next general meeting is Saturday, November 2. This is our election meeting of new board members and special committees. Its important that all members be there.

This Thanksgiving season, I reflect on the people I am thankful that are in my life. Most importantly, I am thankful for my husband Mark and my son Ben. They both support and encourage me to be involved with church activities and organizations. I am thankful for my Ladies Society executive board, Der Zaven, Gina Ananian, Annie Davidian, Donna Torosian, Julie Poochigian, Madlien Hebesia, and Margie L. Davidian. They are all an amazing group of people who work enthusiastically together. I am thankful for all the members of the Ladies Society who unselfishly give of their time for the benefit of our church. Happy Thanksgiving to all of you. I pray God's blessings to you.

*With God's love and guidance,
Linda Farsakian-Wall
Chairlady*
