The Highwood Theatre presents
The Mystery of Edwin Drood Highwood's first student production of the 2014-2015 season

Five Performances:

November 21st and 22nd at 7:30 pm, November 23rd at 7:00pm, and November 22nd and 23rd at 2:00 pm
at The Highwood Theatre in Downtown Silver Spring

The Students' Theatre, a division of The Highwood Theatre, presents the Tony Award-winning musical, The Mystery of Edwin Drood, written by Rupert Holmes and directed by Kevin Kearney. Kearney's talented cast of students, ranging from grades 4-12, will delight audiences in this comedic reworking of Charles Dickens' unfinished murder mystery.

A raucous, immersive, and mysterious musical comedy set in London's Music Hall Royale. Who killed Edwin Drood? YOU decide! The Mystery of Edwin Drood is the only Broadway musical around where the ending differs every performance. Don't miss YOUR chance to finish the story that Dickens didn't!

About The Highwood Theatre

The Highwood Theatre is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing the community together through theatre. Now in its 12th Season, Highwood's guiding principle is "anyone can do theatre." Highwood was founded in 2004 and began executing its mission through seasons of professional-quality theatre featuring all-student casts, design teams, and production staff. In 2013, in conjunction with its relocation to the heart of downtown Silver Spring, The Highwood Theatre expanded to more fully carry out its mission and develop innovative, engaging programming for artists of all ages through professional and student productions, classes, and programs in schools and for home schooled students.
