A Note from Artistic Director Julie Hebb

Welcome to our 12th annual Spring Dance Concert and thank you for coming! What a year this has been!

Since September, we have been enjoying holding classes and rehearsals in our brand new Studio B, which was completed over the Summer. This expansion was an exciting shift for all of us, as we were able to expand our class offerings, and it has given us even more room to move! It's been particularly pleasing and exciting to watch our dancers grow in the new space and make it a home. We've had a full roster of daily classes and were able to hold Nutcracker rehearsals simultaneously in both studios. In March, we presented our first annual Student Choreography Showcase, which was a wonderful success, and in May, we hosted a special in-studio preview performance for Annex Contemporary Dance Company. We appreciate all of our community support as we continue to grow!

As I reflect on today, I am always so impressed by the work of all of the dancers in every class. Dance is not always easy! It is fun, uplifting, freeing, and so much more. But it also can be physically and mentally demanding, requiring commitment and hard work. These young dancers have gone above and beyond in rising to the challenges offered in classes and choreography all year, and they have very gracefully arrived at this point—presenting the culmination of their hard work for all of you. I hope you enjoy this performance as much as I and the teaching staff have enjoyed working with them all year long. I cannot thank all the dancers enough for their dedication, originality and passion. Thank you to our amazing Dance Annex families for supporting the studio and these young artists throughout the year. And lastly, thank you to our exceptional faculty, guest teachers, and assistants for sharing your talents, creativity and guidance.

Congratulations performers!
To our audience...enjoy the show!
Julie Hebb
