

James Brian “Doc” Kula

Feb 29, 2016

James Brian “Doc” Kula, 66, of Caseville, died Sunday, Feb. 28, 2016 at his home.

James was born Jan. 10, 1950, in Cass City, to the late Joseph and Margaret (Ford) Kula and grew up in Deford.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He worked as a mason in residential construction, working with many of the Thumb area builders. In 2004 health problems forced him to quit working, and he then moved to Caseville where he enjoyed many outdoor activities, like fishing and hunting and also collecting coins.

He is survived by his daughters, Melissa (Mick) Larimer of Caseville and Jolene (Jeff) Denison of Ohio; grandchildren, Keith, Heather, Hunter, Amber and Alexis (Brady); a great-grandson, Jaxon; and siblings, Judy Daniels of Lapeer, Jerry (Yvonne) Kula of Owendale and Carol (Dennis) Wahl of Bad Axe; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his brother, John; sister, Mary Rice and grandson, Dalton Larimer.

A memorial service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, March 2 at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with Rev. Karen Bouverette officiating. Military honors will be presented by the Caseville American Legion.

Visitation will be from noon until the time of service Wednesday at the funeral home.
