

2019 HOMESTEAD CERTIFICATION

Dear Homeowner:

Please fill out this Homestead Exemption Certification Application. This application must be properly filled out accompanied by the required proof of occupancy. Incomplete forms will be returned to the homeowner and could cause a delay in receiving the homestead exemption for this coming tax year.

The Rhode Island General Laws and the Johnston Town Code mandate that all owner-occupied residents must apply for this exemption for it to be applicable. This form must be returned to the Tax Assessor's Office no later than April 15, 2019.

Please return the enclosed declaration of Homestead and a copy of three (3) of the following for proof of residency. An updated Rhode Island driver's license or Rhode Island State ID is mandatory. Failure to include the required three forms will result in a delay in receiving the homestead. The application form must be notarized. If you wish to receive a date stamped copy of your homestead application, please supply the town with a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Rhode Island Driver's License (mandatory) or Rhode Island State Identification card (mandatory)

Rhode Island Vehicle Registration

Federal and State Tax Return

Note: The Tax Assessor may require additional information, which he/she deems necessary to carry out the intent of the ordinance.

If the taxpayer knowingly gives misinformation as to the ownership and/or occupancy of the real estate on his/her application for a homestead exemption, the Tax assessor may, in such event, remove the homestead exemption and supplement the tax for the period in question and in addition, charge the taxpayer the maximum interest permitted by law. Fraudulent information on homestead applications will result in permanently losing the homestead exemption.
