CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

The word ‘crisis’ is not a negative word that should make us panic but a word that invites us to seek new ways of responding to our present situation.

Catechetical ministry is a very important ministry in any parish life. This is where children are initiated into our Christian way of life. It is about Sacraments, Worship, Moral values, Prayers, B.E.Cs. & Service.

Unless the parish does this well we will encounter endless challenges with our children and youth down the road.

Every year a few dedicated men and women carry this ministry out diligently and with great sacrifice. The parish is deeply grateful for these dedicated people.

Today, as we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, we want to see a growth in this ministry. We are looking for more Teachers and Faith sharers to inspire our children to live their faith and morals.

We are inviting parents to be more than just drivers for the children but be part of the program.

Already we are encountering endless “ism” in our society. As parents we play a different role giving children a Christian formation.

Please come forward and make it possible.
