

Certified Electrical Hazard Control Technician

Course Length: 2 Days

Course Fees: $495.00 CEU's 1.6

Course credential: Certified Electrical Hazard Control Technician (CEHCT)

Note: Refresher certification is required every three years to maintain professional credential.)

Course Overview

This intermediate Certified Electrical Hazard Recognition and Control Technician safety course focuses on the recognition and control of electrical hazards found in the general industry and construction industry. In this certified training course, you will be instructed on the procedures involved in maintaining a safe work environment for yourself and others. This course will also teach you to identify the risks associated with working with power tools and electrical circuits.

Intended Audience

This electrical hazards training is intended for all construction employees accountable to OSHA regulations.

- Safety, Health and Environmental Professionals,
- Safety & Health Committee Members
- Government Inspectors
- Managers & Supervisors
- General Industry and Construction Personnel
- Construction Managers & Supervisors
- Safety & Health Professionals
- Safety & Health Committees
- Government Inspectors
- Building Inspectors
- Training Managers
- Industrial Hygienists
- Environmental Professionals
-

Learning Objectives

This Certified Electrical Hazard Recognition and Control safety course will enhance your knowledge of safety-related work practices designed to prevent electrical hazards. You are encouraged to further your knowledge on electrical safety by reading the reference guide on Electrical Construction, Title 29 CFR 1926.400-499. By the end of this course, you will have been provided with the knowledge required to work safely at the job site.

Course Topics

- Overview of Electrical Hazard Recognition
- Overview of Electrical Hazard Control
- Jobsite Hazards and Controls
- More Jobsite Hazards and Controls
- Tool Safety Tips
- Clues that Electrical Hazards Exist
- Safety-Related Work Practices
- Summary of Hazards & Protections

INDUSTRY TERMS

- OSHA
- NIOSH
- CFR
- PPE
- GFCI
- AEGCP

Features and Benefits

By taking the IASHEP Certified Electrical Hazard Recognition and Control Technician safety course, you will have been provided with the tools to be able to work safely around electrical hazards at the job site. When finished successfully, you will:

- Know how to identify a number of electrical hazards typically found on construction sites
- Be able to take proper protective measures when using electrical equipment
- Follow cautions in order to maintain a safe work environment for yourself and others

Testing:

Students completing the course must take a proctored final exam. A score of 80% on the final exam is necessary to receive your personalized certificate of completion. The student gets three (3) attempts to pass the course.

