Notice to all Public Housing Tenants

HUD is requiring all Housing Authorities to be more meticulous with catching and reporting fraud, no matter how small it may be. This is your opportunity to come forward if you have something you haven't reported yet.

Penalties for Fraud are as follows:

- 1.) Under Federal Law, Fraud is punishable by fines up to $410,000.00 AND imprisonment for up to 5 years.
- 2.) If a Public Housing participant submits fraudulent information to this agency or withholds relevant information from this agency, the participant WILL be charged back rent, eviction proceedings and information will be submitted to the IGA and/ or HUD for prosecution.

>>>>>>>>>> Information considered as Fraud are as follows: <<<<<<<<<<<

- ❖ Un-reported Income
- ❖ Un-authorized person(s) living in your unit
- ❖ Household member moved out without reporting it
- ❖ Household member that has had a child without reporting it
- ❖ Your child turned 18 and is employed without reporting it
- ❖ Household has any of the following assets: Bank Accounts, CD's, Stocks, Bonds or own Property

This is your chance to make sure all the information we have for you is true and accurate.

I have read and understand the consequences for failure to report all changes to the Rochester Housing Authority within 10 days of the change. I also understand that I must follow the rules and regulations.
