

Bunker, William

William A. Bunker, 64, of Port Austin passed away unexpectedly Sunday, March 17, 2002, at Huron Medical Center in Bad Axe. Born in Lansing on Sept. 5, 1937, he was the son of the late William Sr. and Dorothy (Black) Bunker. Bill and Geraldine Stevens were united in marriage on July 12, 1970, in Flint. He was a former member of Local 25 of the Iron Workers in Flint and moved to the Port Austin area in 1984. He owned and operated the Blue Spruce Motel for six years. He was a former employee of the North Huron Schools, working as a bus driver and janitor. Bill was a veteran of the U.S. Navy. He is survived by his wife, Geraldine Bunker of Port Austin; a stepdaughter, Glenda Swartz and her husband, Fred, of Harbor Beach; four step-grandchildren, Ronald, Donald and his special friend, Noel Eilers, Rhonda Gehring and her husband, Joe, and Delynn Swartz; three step-great-grandchildren, Kara and Jared Gehring and Tyler Swartz; twin sisters, Janet Evoy of Houghton Lake and Janice Root of Alabama; and a brother, Richard Baker and his wife, Coleen, of Wolverine. Cremation has taken place at Sunset Valley Crematory in Bay City. Memorials may be made to the Eastern Huron Ambulance Service, Huron Medical Center or the Harbor Beach Community Hospital through the Ramsey Funeral Home in Harbor Beach, which is handling arrangements.
