

Waynesville INN & Golf Club

Waynesville, North Carolina

August 3 – 9, 2025

Event Details:

We invite you to join your SFGA friends on a Western Carolina Mountain Golf Getaway this summer at the newly renovated Waynesville Inn & Golf Club. Waynesville is located about 30 miles southwest of Asheville between the Great Smoky and Blue Ridge Mountains. At about 3,000 feet in elevation the summer weather is typically less humid and at least 10 degrees cooler than many other parts of the US. The end of the August is a fine time visit as the golf conditions are ideal and the kids are starting to head back to school. In fact, the resort experiences a little lull in business before the busy Labor Day weekend, so they've invited the SFGA to experience their freshly renewed accommodations, restaurants and play their fully renovated 18-hole course. We'll also play two other nearby golf courses, Maggie Valley and Springdale Resort's Golf Course.

With a legacy dating back to 1926 when famed golf architect Donald Ross chose an old dairy farm as the perfect setting for his "Carolina 9" course, the foundation of the Waynesville Inn and Golf Club has always been one of understated excellence. The 165-acre historic property is now home to 18 holes of breathtaking golf, 72 well-appointed guest rooms, 6,000 square of event space, a picturesque Event Lawn and dining that expertly complements any occasion. Members and guests alike can expect state-of-the-art facilities and amenities encapsulated within a legacy as timeless as the surrounding mountain-scape.

The Golf Courses:

WAYNESVILLE GOLF CLUB

In April of 2021 the Raines Company purchased the Waynesville Inn – Golf Resort and Spa. The property was rebranded with a new logo and name, the Waynesville Inn and Golf Club. In partnership with Bobby Weed Golf Design, the course underwent an extensive renovation to become an 18-hole 6,500-yard championship golf course with bent grass tees, fairways and greens. The Original 9 was restored and practice facilities were added including a lighted Himalayan putting green, short game chipping/bunker area, full driving range and par three short course. The transformation was much needed and the results are fantastic. Waynesville always had fun course, now it is completely upgraded and well maintained. This is where our SFGA Golfers will play our first and last rounds during our week-long stay.

SPRINGDALE RESORT GOLF CLUB

The Springdale Golf Club is well-maintained, well-routed, and enjoyable from the first tee to the 18th green. Its surroundings and vistas may soothe even the most aggravating shot. The front nine plays into a valley and the back nine has more of a mountain feel incorporating uphill and downhill elevation changes. The course features stunning views of Cold Mountain and Mt. Pisgah. Overall, the course is fun to play offering generous fairways and receptive greens. Their award-winning club house opened in 2022 and is home to the Rocky Face Tavern which serves both lunch and dinner. The restaurant has a nice dining room and bar and an outstanding terrace overlooking the 18th hole. The golf and food & beverage staff are friendly and professional. This is one of our favorite golf clubs in this part of the Carolina's and we are excited to bring the SFGA there this summer.

MAGGIE VALLEY GOLF CLUB

The golf course at Maggie Valley highlights some of Western North Carolina's most spectacular scenery. This established, 6500-yard course is surrounded by centennial trees and includes 30 acres of fairways leading to large bent grass greens. The front Valley Nine allows players to warm up before tackling the significantly more challenging Mountain Nine, which features an elevation rise of 800 feet and panoramas of the valley and beyond.
