

Skilled, compassionate representation for Californians facing serious domestic violence charges.

Southern California Domestic Violence Attorney

In the past, domestic violence was viewed as a private issue to be handled inside the family. Today it is considered a very serious crime with substantial penalties, including lengthy jail sentences. Southern California criminal defense attorney Antonio J. Bestard has successfully represented clients facing a variety of charges related to domestic violence, including:

Assault / Battery / False Imprisonment / Kidnapping / Stalking / Spousal Abuse / Spousal Rape / Children / Elderly / Ex-Partners / Terrorist Threats

Antonio J. Bestard is particularly skilled at issues related to immigration and deportation after a charge and at the identification of false or retaliatory accusations of abuse for vengeance or personal gain.

As with all his clients, Antonio J. Bestard's chief goal is the protection of your legal rights and the presentation of a strong defense based on California and Federal law. Prosecutors today do not need a cooperating victim to proceed with serious charges related to domestic violence or spousal abuse. You need an experienced criminal defense lawyer with the experience and skills to go head-to-head with the prosecution and question / verify all the evidence to ensure the best possible result, either through negotiation or trial.

Don't let a domestic violence charge ruin your life and taint your record. Contact Southern California domestic violence defense lawyer Antonio J. Bestard today 24-Hour / 1-909-623-2629

