- May 29th- they are officially opening the Carol Pino learning farm. That's behind PS 312. That's been almost 10 to 12 years in the making year finally opened. And it's going to be very nice. We are probably going to do a lot of work in conjunction with them. We've already had trips scheduled for some of the classes this year, and we're trying to collaborate with them and try to establish a continual.
- May 30th – Drama department will be hold it production of The Wizard of Oz .
- At the end of next week, sometime next week, we are going to do a 7th grade high school night, so that 7th grade parents can start to get their feet wet and get an understanding of how the high school application process works for next year when they're 8th graders

Treasurer's Report- Read by Lidia Esposito- To see a copy a request can be made at roymannpta@gmail.com

President Report:

- We're collecting the yearbook ads for business and dedication. So, we're doing pretty good with the ads. If you're sending an ad, whether it be a business or whether it be an ad for your child
- PTA will be giving Ice cream to the students as a reward for the ELA/MATH test.

- If you sent an ad Mr. Amari will at some point send you back confirmation. If you don't hear from him after this week, send an email out to him. Same address to the teacheramari@gmail.com.
- School apparel is still available, but even the low quantity items will not be replaced until Sept of 2026/2026 school year. Anyone wanting to purchase apparel for next year can message the PTA at roymannpta@gmail.com with an apparel order. If it's not in stock, we will fill it in September.

Nominating Committee: Jenn Vulpis and Karolan Henry

- We are going over the nominations and how things are going to work moving forward. Election update, since we had parents requesting that the elections were closed right before the vacation, and we went on spring break. They needed a little more time to nominate themselves. So, due to this, we have decided that we are going to have open elections on May 20th at 6:30 pm
- If you want to nominate yourself on that day you must be present, so you must attend that meeting on May 20th.
- On May 20th, you can nominate yourself from the floor. Position available are President, Recording Secretary, the Treasurer, Vice President, corresponding secretary, Parliamentarian and Sergeant at Arms.
- Presentation of candidates who nominated themselves via form:
Charmaine Dixon for president and Caitlin O'Neill for Recording Secretary.

With that the nominating committee finish their portion of meeting.
They turn it over Lidia Esposito- PTA President.

Lidia closes the meeting. 2 Motions to close by Karolan Henry and seconded by Stacy Linn. The meeting officially closed at 8:15pm
