Important Tips & Pre-Paying Information

Pre planning (including pre-paying) for future services does not have to be as difficult as one may think. Here are some basic tips.

First, find a business that is properly licensed for these types of arrangements. Not all funeral homes are able to provide guaranteed services. In many cases, when a company does not have the proper credentials, they are generally lacking "proof of financial stability," that is required by the State of Florida.

Second, ask questions that are important to your specific needs and goals (perhaps you have a set budget or maybe you are a veteran and would like to learn more about VA death benefits). Although cremation services seem basic in nature, making your specific final wishes known is an important part of the process. So, don't hesitate to ask questions.

Third, be certain that you are sitting with a true licensed professional. Some companies hire "Pre-Need Sales Associates." In fact, many of these Sales Agents have little or no funeral service or cremation service experience. This is not the time to sit with someone that is eager to "sell" something to you.

Lastly, read before you sign. Florida Law grants you, the client, 30 days to rescind an agreement with a funeral home or cremation provider. Therefore, it is important for you to be certain of your agreement.
