

Supreme Court of Florida

No. AOSC11-1

IN RE: PROCEDURES GOVERNING CERTIFICATION OF MEDIATORS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Chapter 44, Florida Statutes, places in the Supreme Court of Florida the responsibility for certifying all persons who are eligible to receive court referrals for mediation. Pursuant to Article V, section 2(a) of the Florida Constitution, and Chapter 44, Florida Statutes, the Court adopted rules 10.100, 10.105 and 10.110, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators, specifying the requirements for such mediators.

This administrative order is adopted to update In Re: Procedures Governing Certification of Mediators, No. AOSC08-23 (Fla. June 30, 2008), which governs the certification process for mediators, and to incorporate the provisions of In Re: Amendments to the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure and The Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators, 41 So. 3d 161 (Fla. July 1, 2010), which provides for appellate mediation certification. The provisions of this order supersede all previous orders on this subject.

I. Initial Certification

A. Application

The certification application provided by the Dispute Resolution Center (hereinafter “Center”) shall be completed by all individuals seeking certification, in accordance with the following procedures:

The Center shall provide, to all individuals who have successfully completed a certified mediation training program, an application and information on the certification requirements.

An application shall be complete upon filing. However, if incomplete upon filing, such incomplete application may not remain pending for a period longer than one year. Any application pending more than one year from the date of original filing shall be denied and returned to the applicant. The one-year period shall be tolled during any review by the Center or Mediator Qualifications Board.

Any material misrepresentation by the applicant in the application process shall be automatically referred to the Mediator Qualifications Board.

B. Certification Requirements

To obtain certification, applicants for county, family, circuit, and dependency mediator certification shall meet all certification requirements in rules 10.100, 10.105 and 10.110, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators, and this order. Applicants for appellate mediator certification shall meet all certification requirements in rules 10.100 and 10.110, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators, and this order.

Point Categories

Mediation Training. Applicants must complete a Florida Supreme Court certified training program for the type of mediation for which they are seeking certification. To qualify as a Florida Supreme Court certified training program, a training program must satisfy all of the requirements of In Re: Mediation Training Standards and Procedures, No. AOSC10-51 (Fla. Sept. 17, 2010), or any successor order.

Applicants shall have completed the requisite certified mediation training program within two years immediately preceding the date of application.

An exception to the requirement that certified appellate mediation training be completed in the two years immediately preceding application will be given to applicants who completed an appellate mediation training program conducted by the Fifth District Court of Appeal in the 10 years preceding the adoption of this order; who were certified in circuit, family, or dependency mediation at the time of training and have been continuously certified in any of the three underlying certifications since that time; and who apply for appellate mediator certification on or before December 31, 2012.

Education/Mediation Experience. Any applicant relying on an educational degree shall provide evidence of such degree in the form of a formal transcript mailed directly from the educational institution to the Center. Such applicant must also enclose a copy of the diploma evidencing the completion of the course of study and the degree. In the event that such documentation is unavailable, the applicant must submit another form of appropriate documentation, such as a sworn affidavit.

Any applicant relying on years of mediation experience shall include an affidavit attesting to such experience.

Mentorship. Mentorship shall include observing mediations conducted by certified mediators and conducting mediations under the supervision and observation of certified mediators. The mentorship requirements for those seeking certification shall be performed in a manner consistent with the following requirements:

The responsibility of structuring a mentorship rests with each trainee.

The trainee shall not receive any fees for any case which the trainee utilizes to complete the required mentorship.

All duly certified mediators are required to allow, upon request, a minimum of two mediation observations or supervised mediations per year.

The certified mediator shall not charge the trainee any fees to observe mediation conducted by the certified mediator, but may charge a reasonable fee for observing and supervising a trainee while the trainee conducts mediation. In addition, the certified mediator shall be entitled to any compensation paid for the mediation.

The certified mediator shall remain in control of the case.

For an applicant to be awarded mentorship points the applicant must work with at least two different certified mediators and the mediations involved must be of the type for which certification is sought.

The confidentiality and privileges provided in the Mediation Confidentiality and Privilege Act, sections 44.401-44.406, Florida Statutes, shall apply when a trainee serves as a mediator, co-mediator, or observer.

State-funded trial court mediation programs shall assist trainees in completing their mentorship requirements.

Applicants shall provide original signatures of all mentors in relation to all mentorship activity claimed.

A trainee shall not fulfill any of the mentorship requirements before beginning the certified mediation training program which will be used for the pending application. The observation requirement may be completed prior to the conclusion of the certified mediation training program; however, in no case shall an observation which is part of the training be used to fulfill the observation requirements for certification. A supervised mediation shall only be conducted by a trainee after the completion of a certified mediation training program.

Mediation Observations

For each observation required for certification, the trainee must observe an entire session of the type of mediation for which certification is sought, conducted by a certified mediator in the same category for which certification is sought. The observation requirement shall not be satisfied by any individual who is a party, participant, or representative in the mediation. An appellate or pre-suit mediation may be utilized for observation purposes if (1) it is or would have been the type of mediation for which certification is sought if it had been filed in a trial court and (2) if it is conducted by a certified mediator of the type for which certification is sought. A federal court mediation conducted by a certified circuit court mediator may be utilized to fulfill a circuit court mentorship. Administrative agency mediations conducted under rules and procedures other than those of the state trial courts may not be utilized to fulfill the mentorship requirements. Because appellate certification requires an underlying certification in family, circuit, or dependency mediation, there is no additional mentorship requirement for appellate certification.

Supervised Mediations

A supervised mediation is defined as one in which the trainee conducts a mediation under the supervision and observation of a certified mediator or the trainee co-mediate with a certified mediator. At the conclusion of the mediation, the mentor shall determine if the trainee made a substantial contribution to the mediation. If so, the case may qualify as a “supervised” mediation. If not, the case will qualify only as an observation.

For purposes of conducting supervised mediations, mediation is defined as a complete case, which may consist of multiple sessions. The entire mediation shall be co-mediated or observed by a certified mediator of the type for which certification is sought. In the event the trainee is only able to participate in a single session of a multi-session mediation, such participation qualifies as an observation regardless of the trainee’s level of participation. An appellate or pre-suit mediation may be utilized for the requirements to conduct mediations under supervision and observation if (1) it is or would have been the type of mediation for which certification is sought if it had been filed in a trial court and (2) it is conducted by a certified mediator of the type for which certification is sought. A federal court mediation conducted by a certified circuit court mediator may be utilized to fulfill a circuit court mentorship. Administrative agency mediation conducted under rules and procedures other than those of the state trial courts may not be utilized to fulfill the mentorship requirements.

Miscellaneous Points. Any applicant requesting certification points on the basis of licensure in a profession shall provide all applicable information necessary for the Center to verify such licensure.

Any applicant requesting certification on the basis of specific experience shall provide a resume detailing the experience and any other information necessary for the Center to verify such experience.

Any such response shall be reviewed by a three-person subcommittee of the Supreme Court Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy appointed to review such matters, which shall make a recommendation to the full Supreme Court Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy. The decision of the full committee shall be final.

II. Certification Renewal

A. Application for Renewal

Mediators seeking continued certification shall be required to file an application for renewal and a completed Continuing Mediator Education Reporting Form accompanied by renewal payment fees. Mediators seeking renewal of appellate mediator certification shall also be required to maintain no less than one of their previous certifications in family, dependency, or circuit mediation.

Any material misrepresentation by a mediator in the renewal process shall be automatically referred to the Mediator Qualifications Board.

B. Continuing Mediator Education

The purpose of Continuing Mediator Education (hereinafter “CME”) shall be to enhance the participant's professional competence as a mediator. The requirement for CME and the reporting thereof shall apply to all certified mediators seeking renewal and shall be fulfilled in accordance with the following procedures.

General Requirement

To qualify as CME, a course or activity shall have significant, current intellectual or practical content and shall constitute an organized program of learning directly related to the practice of mediation. CME shall be conducted by an individual or group qualified by practical or academic experience.

All certified mediators must complete a minimum of:

1. Generally: Sixteen (16) hours of CME, which shall include a minimum of four hours of mediator ethics, a minimum of two hours of domestic violence education, and a minimum of one hour of diversity/cultural awareness education in each two year renewal cycle, inclusive of the two years following initial certification.
2. Family and Dependency: Family and dependency mediators must complete an additional two hours of the required 16 hours in domestic violence education per each renewal cycle, for a total of four hours.
3. Appellate: Appellate mediators must complete no less than four hours of appellate-specific mediation education. This may be part of or in addition to the required 16 hours per each renewal cycle of the underlying certification.

Mediators who are certified in more than one area must complete 16 hours of CME applicable to each of their areas of certification. Hours completed may be utilized toward more than one area of certification if the subject matter is relevant to each field of certification. For example, courses on such topics as mediator ethics, domestic violence, and general mediation skills may be credited to any or all of the areas of certification.

At a minimum, 50 percent of the required CME hours must be satisfied by attendance, not as a lecturer or presenter, at a live lecture, live seminar, or an audio/video playback of a seminar attended by a group that discussed the materials presented. Interactive Internet presentations may be counted as attendance at a live lecture. Non-interactive Internet presentations shall be applied toward the audio-visual category. A maximum of four hours of CME may be earned through mentoring as defined above. Mentoring activities cannot be applied toward the required ethics, diversity/cultural awareness, or domestic violence CME components.

Continuing education completed for another profession's continuing education requirement may be used as CME if the material bears directly on the mediator's mediation practice and complies with the CME guidelines set forth in this order.

Mediator certification shall not be renewed until all CME requirements are completed.

Definition

A CME hour is defined as 50 minutes. CME may be completed during the mediator's renewal cycle in any of the following formats:

- a) attending a live lecture or seminar;
- b) listening to or viewing an audio or video presentation of a lecture or seminar with a group, and participating in a discussion of the materials presented;
- c) listening to or viewing audio or video presentations;
- d) serving as a mentor pursuant to rule 10.100, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators;
- e) participating in Internet presentations;
- f) lecturing or teaching CME courses;
- g) authoring or editing written materials submitted for publication that have significant intellectual or practical content directly related to the practice of mediation; and
- h) successfully completing a self-directed program that is qualified for continuing education credit by a governmental licensing board.

Reporting Requirements

Mediators must maintain proof of attendance at CME programs or other appropriate documentation and must report their CME at the end of each two-year renewal cycle on the Center's renewal form. The mediator shall be responsible for maintaining all records relating to CME, which records shall be subject to audit. In addition, the mediator must certify that he or she has read the current Florida mediation rules; Chapter 44, Florida Statutes; and other relevant statutes.

Any CME hours completed may be utilized for only one renewal cycle. Hours in excess of the minimum requirement shall not be carried forward to the next renewal cycle.

Attending and lecturing or teaching at the same CME presentation will not entitle a mediator to additional credit. This prohibition against repeat attendance shall not apply to annual conferences and yearly updates.

If all other qualifications for renewal are satisfied and all fees paid or waived, but a mediator is deficient in CME credits, the mediator shall be notified in writing and certification shall be continued for 90 days from the notice of noncompliance. During those 90 days, the mediator shall complete all remaining CME requirements in order to be eligible for renewal.

Review Process

A mediator who disagrees with a finding of deficiency may object in writing within 30 days of the initial determination of deficiency as indicated in a certificate of mailing. Any such response shall be reviewed by a three-person subcommittee of the Supreme Court Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy appointed to review such matters, which shall make a recommendation to the full Supreme Court Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy. The decision of the full committee shall be final.

C. Fees

Renewal fees shall be at the same levels as for initial certification. All mediators seeking renewal shall be responsible for these fees. However, for renewals that are filed timely, the $40 county mediator renewal fee will be waived upon written confirmation from the ADR Program Director (or designee) that the mediator served as a volunteer in the county court mediation program a minimum of six times during the prior certification period.

Mediators whose certification has lapsed may renew certification up to 180 days from the lapse date upon payment of a late fee in an amount equal to the mediator's renewal fee. Mediators who apply for renewal within 365 days after the lapse date will be required to pay a late fee equal to five times the mediator's renewal fee, up to a maximum of $750. Mediators who apply for certification after day 365 will be required to meet the requirements for certification as a new mediator, including satisfactory completion of a certified mediation training program and fulfillment of the mentorship requirements. For purposes of this paragraph, the lapse date reverts to the initial renewal date, notwithstanding any extensions.

A mediator may request from the Center an extension of the renewal requirements and a waiver of any penalties for an extraordinary hardship. If such request is denied, a request for review may be taken to the three-person subcommittee of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy Committee appointed to review such matters, which shall make a recommendation to the full Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy Committee. The decision of the full committee shall be final.

III. Administrative Responsibility

Administrative responsibility for implementation of the provisions of Chapter 44, Florida Statutes; rules 10.100, 10.105 and 10.110, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators; and this administrative order shall be with the Dispute Resolution Center of the Office of the State Courts Administrator.

All certification, application, renewal, and late fees shall be deposited in the Supreme Court's Mediation and Arbitration Trust Fund to be used to provide support for implementing the applicable statutes, rules, and the provisions of this administrative order.
