

Candidate Presentation for:
(Client name redacted)

Position: K-12 Studio Leader
Location: (city/state redacted)
Candidate Name: (redacted)

Please see the attached resume for (name redacted). (name redacted) is currently the Managing Director for (firm name redacted) Education Studio in (city/state redacted) where his/her emphasis is heavily on K-12 schools and Higher Education projects. Note: (name redacted) was not actively seeking a position when contacted by Emissary).

(name redacted) is an extremely articulate and professional senior-level architect with a lengthy Education projects delivery history and seasoned client relations acumen. What is particularly interesting about (name redacted) -- beyond his/her thought-leadership in Education -- is that he/she further possesses a significant business management background as a licensed CPA, making him/her well poised to effectively lead strategic studio-level design/delivery initiatives while adeptly managing studio budgets/financials. He/She is heavily involved in business development, design presentations, oversight of construction drawings, project budgets, client relations, etc. Of note, (name redacted) was brought into (firm name redacted) to reinvigorate the K-12 sector in (city/state redacted) and has since helped to grow that office from 20-40 people in the span of just 3 years.

(name redacted) is a (state redacted) Registered Architect, has approx. 15 years of direct/relevant K-12/schools experience, holds an undergraduate degree in Accounting from (University redacted) and received his/her MArch from the (University redacted).

Note: As a passive candidate not previously seeking an opportunity, any further development of this candidate must be kept strictly confidential.

Current base salary (salary redacted).
PTO: 4 weeks.
Equity: no
401K: comparable:
Bonus: 20% of base – variable

Please advise next steps.

Cheers,
Jeremy

Jeremy Clarke