

TRUST IN LOVE

I always wondered what you meant,
When you called me your angel, and said that, I must be heavenly sent

Like the affair between a blossom and a bee
The essence of their love, like our kiss, it's sweet, like the taste of honey

When we first met, you said that I was the love of your life, and it made me cry, when you asked me, to be your wife

Then, you looked at me and smiled You reached out to hold me in your arms, and you asked me, to be, the mother of your child

At times like these, our faith in love, is tested
That is why, I just had to say yes,

.....,

I am the one, that you can trust
