

TCCSTA Director's meeting
Friday, March 4, 2011
Lone Star Café
Commerce, Texas

The TCCSTA directors meeting was held at 11:30am at the Lone Star Café in Commerce, Texas. President, Joy Richmond called the meeting to order. Joy asked for the reading of the minutes. Besides some typing errors and the misspelling of Joe Kaough's name, there were not corrections. The minutes were read and approved. Clay Grizzle moved to accept and John Corley seconded.

The treasurer's report was read and approved. John Corley moved to accept and Nancy McVean seconded.

Joy Richmond called for old business. The Founder's Award was discussed. It was decided to award Ray Karrer, Pat Baldwin, and Joe Kaough as the first winners of the award (2011). Discussion about writing a letter and putting the names on line ensued. A deadline was set for Sept 1 to nominate the future Founders of TCCSTA. Nominations can be on line or in person. The host school should remind everyone in their letter for the fall business meeting. The Founder's Award should go to those who have been instrumental in the organization.

Nancy McVean at Weatherford College will host next year (2012)

Clay Grizzle contacted SFA about hosting for 2013.

A discussion followed about keeping the 2 judge format for future festivals.

Joy Richmond called for new business. It was brought up that guidelines in the constitution need to be reinvestigated. Time limits for set up and strike and performance need to be looked at. Also, tech awards: when should they be held?

Everyone congratulated Brad on a superb job at hosting the festival. Thank you, Brad!!

Kirk Davidson moved to adjourn the meeting. Brad Nies seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 12:27.
