Lord, thank you for your love that you gave your life as a ransom for our sins

Quote & History Tidbit

Jonathan Hayashi

“A shepherd/teacher is called not only to do ministry but to help others learn how to do it. This model Paul sets forth flies in the face of this consumer mentality Christianity.”

Born: Japan

Hayashi is an American speaker, pastor, author and sits on the pastoral staff at Troy First Baptist Church in Missouri, USA. Although, he came from a troubled past, Jonathan became convicted by 1 John 3:1 and gave his life to Christ at age 16. As he pursued God's calling upon his life he had to learn how to overcome dyslexia and ADHD while learning to read the Bible and pursuing studies in pastoral ministry and pastoral leadership at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. His book entitled “Ordinary Radicals: A Return to Christ-Centered Discipleship” unfolds with honest open-heart question, of how we think and take the gospel in our lives. “For the gospel you believe, determines the disciple you make.”
