

WILTON ARMETALE PARTNERS WITH AWARD WINNING BARBECUE CHEF Grilling Guru Cooks on Armetale Metal Products

Mount Joy, PA –

Wilton Armetale, maker of durable metal cook, grill and serveware is proud to announce a new partnership with Bill Pikus. Bill, from Kansas, will be the new face for the Wilton Armetale Gourmet Grillware line. He will be attending various upcoming tradeshow and events that will showcase the unique pieces of the grillware line that Wilton Armetale has introduced. Bill will demonstrate the versatility of Gourmet Grillware and how it can be used to create great recipes.

Bill Pikus, the co-owner of Grill Side Barbeque Sauce (www.grillsidebbq.com) was a sports director and sports anchor for several stations across the United States. Now he is a barbecue enthusiast who has developed three award winning sauces under the name Grill Side Barbeque. Wilton Armetale Inc. felt that Bill was a perfect fit for the Gourmet Grillware line, which focuses on providing solutions for cooking numerous foods on the grill.

Bill's first focus will be tailgating. He recently attended Tailgate Wars in Mesquite, TX. To see his test video and some recipes and the grillware product, go to www.gourmetgrilleware.com or www.facebook.com/gourmetgrillware. In addition, he will be blogging great uses for the product and recipes on www.gourmetgrillware.wordpress.com.

Wilton Armetale's product is made from recycled product and Grill Side sauces are made with high quality, all natural and gluten free ingredients. Whether you are attending a backyard barbeque in the suburbs, a condo cookout downtown, or just hanging out in your hometown, Grill Side goes anywhere.
