

Faith Required

“But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, the just shall live by faith” (Galatians 3:11).

Your spiritual growth does not come without effort. Being a Christian and walking in faith go together like chocolate and peanut butter. Your faith is, a skill that requires effort that develops in stages.

Your Christian life began by faith, continues in faith and will end in faith. You need to take the initiative to build your faith by trusting in what He says to you. It's only by the blood of Jesus that you have any promises from God. There is no limit to God's capacity or what He can do.

Daily you are challenged to take full advantage of the divine power and promises of God. God is faithful and He can be trusted to fulfill every promise He has made. There are over 3000 promises in God's Word. God gave promise after promise. That's a lot of promises and all those promises belong to you. God's promises depend upon God's faithfulness and power to fulfill His promises.

2 Corinthians 1:20, “For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through him the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God.”

God's promises are “Yes” and your response is “Amen.”

This means that whatever promises you are waiting on, God's word will not return empty (Isaiah 55:10-11). God will do what He promised you. There is nothing that one of God's promises is not willing to help you with.

However, you must also understand that every thing you do in life should be based upon faith in the promises of God. The truth is that God's promises are of no value until you act upon them!
