GATHERING

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM AND REMEMBRANCE

P In the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.
Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.
Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.
We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.
Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.
To you be given honor and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C Amen.

P In baptism we are knitted into Christ's body, the communion of saints.
We remember with gratitude those saints among us who now rest from their labors:
Tony Perrotte, JoAnne Bowman, Arloa Bittikofer, Rev. Barbara Shade, and others we name aloud or on our hearts.

Pour out your Holy Spirit, O God. Comfort us as we mourn. Stir up joy as we remember.
Guide us into hope-filled living, until with all the saints, we offer the full and perfect praise forever.

C Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

WORD

First Reading: Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

The book of Daniel was written in the second century BCE, when the Syrian king Antiochus Epiphanes was severely persecuting the Jews. Daniel's vision of the four beasts proclaims that human kings will come and go, but the kingdom will ultimately belong to God and to God's people.

¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me.

¹⁶I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: ¹⁷"As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever."

Psalm: Psalm 149

Congregation sings Refrain and bold verses.

¹Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD¹ a new song, God's praise in the assembly¹ of the faithful.

²Let Israel rejoice¹ in their maker; let the children of Zion be joyful¹ in their ruler.

³Let them praise their maker's¹ name with dancing; let them sing praise with tambou-¹rine and harp.

⁵Let the faithful re-¹joice in triumph; let them sing for joy¹ on their beds.

⁸to bind their¹ kings in chains and their nobles with¹ links of iron,

⁹to inflict on them the judg-¹ment decreed; this is glory for all God's faithful ones.¹ Hallelujah!

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:11-23

After giving thanks for the faith of the Ephesians, the writer of this letter prays that they might understand the wisdom, hope, and power of God that is embodied in Jesus Christ.

¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. ¹⁷I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, ¹⁸so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. ²⁰God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. ²²And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,

After the Gospel is announced, the people say: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Luke 6:20-31

In echoes of the prophet Isaiah and Mary's song of praise, Jesus reveals surprising things about who enjoys blessing and who endures woe. He invites his disciples to shower radical love, blessing, forgiveness, generosity, and trust even on enemies and outsiders.

²⁰Then [Jesus] looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹“Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

²²“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

²⁴“But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

²⁵“Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. “Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

²⁶“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

²⁷“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. ²⁹If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. ³⁰Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again.

³¹Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

After the Gospel is read, the people say: Praise to you, O Christ.

Blessing of Memorials

Sisters and brothers, today we give thanks to God and we seek God’s blessing as we set apart the many memorial gifts we received in the past twelve months, to the glory of God.

Let us pray:

We give you thanks, O God, creator of the universe for you have enriched our lives with every good and perfect gift; you have commanded us to show your splendor to our children; and you have invited us to praise you with lives of love, justice, and joy.

Send your blessing on the software we use for managing the business of this congregation, on the gifts given to Stephen Ministry, the Music Ministry, and Lutheran World Relief.

Send your blessing on our new Fair Linens and the new Green Paraments that they be set apart and may continue to adorn this house, show us the beauty of your holiness so that we might proclaim the glory of your majesty.

Send your blessing on the new microphone headset and all these gifts set apart this day. Help us to make use of these things in reverence and love as we give glory to your holy name.

To you, O God, be all glory and honor through your Son, Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

The prayers are prepared locally for each occasion. The following examples may be adapted or used as appropriate.

United with your saints across time and place, we pray for our shared world.

A brief silence.

Holy One, your church rests on the faithful who came before us. Give bishops, pastors, deacons, and lay leaders the will to carry the church forward and discern your will for the future. Lord, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy One, the earth is yours and all that dwells within it. Care for places ravaged by natural disasters (especially). Quell raging fires and halt destruction caused by flooding. Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Holy One, you raise up leaders to guide your people. Kindle in them a passion to care for others, a desire to seek the common good, and the courage to love their enemies. Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Holy One, you bless those who are poor, hungry, and reviled. Provide food, housing, and security to all who are vulnerable or in crisis. May those who have more than enough give generously.

Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Holy One, hold us in community with one another. Nurture a spirit of abundant hospitality and intentional inclusion among us, welcoming the gifts of adults and children. Inspire creative visions for our life together. Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

Holy one, calm all who are facing illness, surgery, or a new diagnosis (especially), Barbara, Jan, Janet, Joyce, Ida, Phyllis and Larry, Bob and Ellie, Naomi, Pat, Judy, Mary, John, Tom, and others we may name aloud or quietly in our hearts. Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Holy One, we remember in thanksgiving all those who have died. (Here the names of those who have died in the previous year may be read.) Wipe away our tears and comfort us with the promise of everlasting life in you. Lord, in your mercy,

receive our prayer.

Accept these prayers, gracious God, and those known only to you; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

PEACE

P The peace of Christ be with you always.

C And also with you.

Offertory Prayer

A Let us pray together

C God of all creation, all you have made is good, and your love endures forever. You bring forth bread from the earth and fruit from the vine. Nourish us with these gifts, that we might be for the world signs of your gracious presence in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And al-so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Preface

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.

By the witness of your saints you show us the hope of our calling and strengthen us to run the race set before us, that we may delight in your mercy and rejoice with them in glory.
And so, with [name/s and] all the saints, with the choirs of angels and all the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy Holy Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.
In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.
Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.
 Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.
 Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food,
 the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord;
 to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
 be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

P Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

C Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

P Come to the banquet for all is ready.

Come to Martin Luther's Birthday Bash! On Wednesday, November 9, at 6:00 pm, we will have our next Wednesday Night Supper with all things Martin Luther. The meats for the meal will be provided (chicken tenderloins and meatloaf). We hope you will consider bringing a side dish for the evening's meal. These can be salads, pastas, bread, vegetables, starches, or desserts. If you can indicate how many attending, what you are bringing, and which meat you wish to eat on the sign up sheet in the atrium or in your email to Susan (admin@stpaulsdurham.org) by Sunday, Nov 6, it would help our planning.

There will be a trivia contest, pin the theses on the door, a diet of worms gummie worm eating contest, as well as a throw the indulgences in the trash can contest. Prizes will be awarded. Also, we will once again offer beer from Der Nachbar Bottleshop and taps.

The Afghan refugee resettlement group has been hard at work helping our new neighbors from Afghanistan settle in Durham. They are a wonderful family of 10 with another child on the way. The father drove US military personnel in Afghanistan and we would like to purchase a used van for him. Additionally, the oldest son needs tuition for community college in the fall. He dreams of one day being a doctor. In order to help raise funds for these needs we have started a gofundme page: <https://gofund.me/1cf5b6e8> We encourage people to donate (everything helps) and also to share the link. This is an easy way for us as a church to simultaneously help a family in need and to reach out beyond our walls and show everyone the good work we are doing.

Time with Wildflower Staff and Open House – On Sunday, November 13, we will have time during the 11:00 am service with Krissy Snyder and some of her staff. They have been getting settled into Wildflower Cottage next door and have invited us to an open house after the 11:00 am service that day. They have created a wonderful educational and creative space which you are welcome to visit that day.

The Dropped Stitch Prayer Shawl Ministry is returning. They meet the last Friday of the month from 1:00 - 3:00 pm, usually in the sofa area in the atrium. This group creates prayer shawls by knitting or crochet.

We also welcome back the Tongue and Thimble group. This group creates small quilts which are distributed to the nurseries at local hospitals for their critical patients. They meet downstairs in the Fiber Arts/Music room off of the Genesis Hall on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month at 10:00 am - 12:00 noon.

Young In Spirit November events:

Do you want a copy of your offering statement? Please contact our Bookkeeper, Alan Rigsbee (bookkeeper@stpaulsdurham.org), or one of the co-financial secretaries, Phil Hart (psbhart@gmail.com) or Rod Runestad (rodrunestad@gmail.com) to receive a 3rd quarter financial statement. We will mail full-year 2022 statements to everyone in early 2023.

St. Paul's Readers – We invite all readers to join us for our discussion of Damien the Leper: A Life of Magnificent Courage, Devotion and Spirit by John Farrow. Our final meeting of this year is on Thursday, November 17, at 3 pm in Trinity Hall. Lorrell Strom-Jensen is facilitating the discussion.

Damien the Leper: A Life of Magnificent Courage, Devotion and Spirit chronicles the extraordinary journey of Joseph De Veuster. This priest left his secure life in Belgium, thrust aside all thoughts of personal danger, and spent the rest of his days as Father Damien comforting the sick and the dying in a leper colony. His statue is displayed in the National Statuary Hall Collection in the US Capitol Building. John Farrow's splendid biography tells this unforgettable story of valor and sacrifice.

We are beginning to make our selections for our reading list for next year. The book club strives to choose books from different genres, both fiction and non-fiction. We request that all those interested please submit two books with brief summations via email to Katherine Trexler. We hope to finalize our list of eight books for 2023 at this November meeting.

The Giving Tree – By mid-November, there will be a Christmas tree set up in the Atrium decorated with envelopes. Some will include gift ideas for students from Burton Elementary and others will request a variety of gift cards for the Parktown Food Hub Christmas giveaway. Details will be announced.

During the past year, we have enjoyed the result of St. Paul's annual contribution in support of "Sing for Joy," a radio program of sacred music aired by WCPE and their website, theclassicalstation.org. Now we have an opportunity to renew our $1,000 annual support of "Sing for Joy" so that St. Paul's can continue to be named on the air as a sponsor of the program. Donors can drop a check, noting WCPE on the check, in the offering plate or the Finance Drop Box in the staff hallway. These checks will be consolidated and a check from St. Paul's will be sent to WCPE when we accumulate the $1,000 donation. Many thanks to Hitch Havill for helping us support WCPE and "Sing for Joy."

Music Time for Children – Join us at the 8:30 am service on Sundays for music time with Ted Turner, our minister of music. Following the children's message, all children (and parents) are invited to come sing some songs and have some fun in Whitesell hall during the sermon at the early service. They will return to the service after the singing to continue worship. We hope to see you there.

Adult Sunday Class at St. Paul's continues with a new topic. Morris Casper is leading a session of four Sundays on Martin Luther. Join us in Trinity Hall on Sundays at 9:45-10:45 am. Coffee will be available.

Children will be meeting each Sunday downstairs in the Genesis Room (the larger room with the kitchen). They begin at 9:45 and conclude at 10:45 am. Leaders are Betty Hinshaw and Carole Ostrowski. They will be incorporating the Vacation Bible School curriculum so the children will be learning all about Jesus through bible stories which accompany the series "Rocky Railroad." We welcome all children to this interactive and varied activities program.

Child Care on Sunday mornings! We now have an attendant, Courtney, on Sunday mornings who will care for your small children so parents and older children may attend Sunday School and worship. She will be available during the 8:30 service through the 11:00 service. Care will take place in the Parlor which is the room between the atrium and Whitesell Fellowship Hall.

Thursday Bible Study – Join us on Thursdays at 10:30-11:45 am where we are studying the book of Genesis. The class takes place in the Conference Room and by Zoom. Study notes will be emailed.

The November Croasdaile Worship was moved to avoid Thanksgiving so it will be on the third Thursday this month and at 3:00 pm so look for us at Croasdaile on Thursday, November 17 at 3:00 pm! Spread the word of the change and invite others to worship.

PASTA for PARKTOWN!!

Help Stock the St. Paul's Shelf at Parktown Food Hub!

THANK YOU for your generous gifts of boxed pasta. They are making a difference! Please keep adding a box or boxes of dry pasta to your grocery list and deliver to the box in the foyer. The Women's Connection Group is leading this initiative to support the Parktown Food Hub, a ministry of South Durham Connections, led by Pastor Sharon Schulze.

St. Paul's Shelf - dry boxed pasta – spaghetti, macaroni, ziti, penne, etc. (NOT: kits or dinner, nor canned pasta entrees).

Reserve your Space! We now have more rooms available but we also have some of our previous groups pre-Covid, gathering in their usual spaces. What this means for everyone is that you need to book your meeting time and space ahead! Contact Susan in the church office, request your date, time, and room. A location cannot be guaranteed if it is not on the church calendar!

Music Ensembles invite you to join in! Handbell choir rehearsals are on Wednesdays at 6:30 pm in the balcony. No prior ringing experience is necessary, but some understanding of sheet music is helpful. The adult choir, which meets at 7:15 on Wednesday nights, is open to any and all interested in singing, no prior experience is necessary.

Ted Turner, the Minister of Music, is available for piano and/or organ lessons. Ted has experience teaching a diverse array of skill levels and ages, no prior experience is necessary. More information is available at www.tedturnerorganist.com, contact him at 217-898-3467 or tturner16@gmail.com

Our Free Little Library is full of books, magazines, and puzzles for your use. You are welcome to take or leave one to use and share. Stop by the shelf which is near the water fountain in the atrium.

We continue to update our photographs in our directory. To help us – please submit a current photograph of you/your family. It does not have to be a professional photo – many of you probably have selfies and vacation photos handy on your phone. You may send it to Susan Esposito at admin@stpaulsdurham.org and it will be uploaded into your family profile. You may also make any changes, such as address, email address, birthdays, anniversary, phone numbers – at the same time. You can get the latest directory on your smart phone app “Instant Church Directory.” Stop by the credenza under the TV monitor in the atrium and there are instruction sheets for both Android and Apple phones. As changes occur, the updates are made in the church office and are instantly updated on your app when you use it.

One easy way you can support the St. Paul's Preschool & PMO is by linking your Harris Teeter VIC card. When you link your card to St. Paul's Preschool & PMO, the Preschool will receive a portion of your purchases from Harris Teeter. The Harris Teeter account number is 3049. You can link in any store or online and you do not need to be a preschool parent to link your card.

Worship Update – We have two services: 8:30 am and 11:00 am, both using Setting One of the ELW. The 8:30 am service will be in-person. The 11:00 am service will be in-person, live-streamed and recorded. The link to watch the 11:00 service live is: <https://vimeo.com/event/1478223>. The link to watch any services which have been recorded is: <https://vimeo.com/stpaulsdurham> then choose the service date or event you wish to watch. We now are offering child-care during the worship times. Our attendant will be located in the room between the foyer and Whitesell Hall.
