Special points of interest:

- Holiday Luncheon and Photos

Yes, Christmas has come and gone and the New Year is upon us.

The elves have been keeping your editor very busy, thus the reason for being tardy with the December issue.

So everyone gets a bonus as the January newsletter is right behind.

Your 2018 officers hope you had a very happy time with family

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

Twenty-five members and guests attended this years event. As always, the ambiance and food were delightful as well as the assortment of gifts. Photos on page 2.

President Horn gave members an up-date on Bonnie Conway, treasurer. Since she fell and broke her femur, she was at TMC then Sabino Canyon Rehab and is well on her way to recovery.

John thanked everyone for their continued membership and participation in the TUS Vanguards and reminded everyone if you have not yet renewed for 2019 forms are online or pick one up at the February meeting.
