

EVOLVING Pictures

Jack Gilardi Sr., of ICM Partners, brokered an unprecedented contractual agreement on the behalf of Evolving Pictures Entertainment with Twentieth Century Fox, for the highly anticipated ‘Mad Monster Party’, remake.

Jack is one of the most respected agents in Hollywood, having represented Charlton Heston, Dennis Hopper and Caroll O’Connor among many others. However, Jack’s true passions for the past forty years have been his family and sports. His three children, Gina, Jacky, and Jason, were all raised on the little league field in Encino where Jack coached each of his son’s teams for years. In addition, since the 1960’s Jack has organized a number of weekend softball games for the Hollywood Entertainment League, as well as continuing to helm the annual Hollywood Stars Game at Dodgers Stadium.

Jack is the quintessential “man behind the scenes” who is always willing to lend a hand. Over the years, Jack has devoted much time and effort to raising funds for cancer research, the Motion Picture Relief Fund and Encino Little League. City of Hope, the Leukemia Foundation, the Italian Government, and the Concern Foundation have all honored Jack for his efforts.

Jack's clients have included many talented entertainers.
