SURVEY on Novena devotion & Sunset Mass schedule

The Parish Pastoral Council at their meeting decided to do a survey from 4th of November till 26th November, 2023 regarding the evening

Novena devotion and Sunset mass.

This is due to the Elderly finding it difficult to attend Mass and return home after 7.00 p.m.

Secondly, the difficulty to have their dinner as the food courts are crowded.

This survey will help us to find the best way to serve the parishioners.

The time suggested is –

= Novena devotion at 5 p.m.

= Sunset mass at 5.45 p.m.

If at all there are any changes in the time it will take effect next year 2024.

Details of how this survey to be carried will be explained to all by end of October.

CLERGY MEETING

All priests will be away in Penang from Tuesday 17 till Wednesday 18 October, 2023.

There will be no 7 a.m. Mass on Wednesday 18, October, 2023.

Mass intentions booked will be said out-station.

Dear Brothers & Sisters

Blessings and Peace to you!

Our Parish is constantly finding ways to respond to the changing needs of parishioners, with respect to both spiritual matters as well as to the physical environment.

Through feedback received from parishioners, and through the process of listening and deliberation, the Parish Pastoral Council is able to make decisions affecting the spiritual and material comfort of the parish community.

Putting decisions into action depends largely upon the support and collaboration of all parishioners. A project that the Parish Pastoral Council has been working upon is the installation of 5 new units of air-conditioners in the church. With the increasing warm weather conditions, the existing air-conditioning is inadequate to serve the interior of the whole church.

The cost of the installation is estimated at RM97,500.00 covering the 5 air-conditioning units, wiring work and air-con panels.

We look forward to your support and financial assistance to carry out this costly but necessary project for the benefit of all. Your contribution of any amount is very much appreciated.

Kindly make your contribution to:-
