Missouri Reopens

Governor Mike Parson and the Warren County Commissioners have announced that Missouri and Warren county is back to business as usual. Although these elected officials have decided to leave the responsibility up to individuals, the Village of Innsbrook would like to remind all of our residents to continue making responsible decisions when in public by practicing social distancing, avoiding large crowds, wearing face coverings when necessary, and staying home if you are sick. Continue to follow CDC guidelines, and stay safe and healthy. Please remember the virus is not gone. Currently there is not a vaccine for COVID-19, and positive case numbers continue to rise across the U.S. and around the globe.

E-Newsletter

While the threat of COVID-19 still exists, the amount of new information being released has slowed down drastically. The idea behind the weekly E-Newsletter, when it began in March, was to keep our community informed during the unknown, trying times at the beginning of the pandemic. With the steady decline of new information, the Village of Innsbrook has decided to cease the usual weekly E-Newsletters. However, this does not mean the Village will completely stop sending newsletters to our community. As a municipality, it is the responsibility of the Village to be transparent and to keep our residents informed as much as possible. E-Newsletters will continue to be emailed on a necessary basis. We encourage our residents to continue utilizing the Village website to locate needed information. The Village of Innsbrook will continue the use of the Village Facebook page as well.

Village Hall Guidelines

Subsequent to other Missouri Municipalities, Innsbrook Village Hall will remain closed to the public until July 6, 2020. After which time, the Village Administrator will be available during the reduced dates and times as follows: Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9am-2pm. The general public will not be allowed beyond the entry area of Village Hall to ensure social distancing measures are being practiced. Occupancy will be reduced to one customer at a time. Masks are required inside the building, no exceptions. A sanitization station will be available upon entry into the building. All individuals must sign in upon entry as well, in order to contact trace if needed. Residents are strongly encouraged to utilize the Village website for needed information, as well as the use of phone or electronic means for communication. Notary services will continue to be suspended until further notice. Due to limited space inside Village Hall, meetings will continue to be available for the public to attend via Zoom. Individuals will not be permitted to physically attend meetings at Village Hall. All meeting information will be available on the Village website, 24 hours prior to each meeting.
