

McMahon, Kathryn Adele

Kathryn Adele McMahon, 77, of Macomb Township died Jan. 6, 2008 at Henry Ford Macomb Hospital, Clinton Township.

She was born on June 27, 1930 in Detroit and raised in Caseville. She graduated from St. Clement High School in 1947 at the age of 16. She attended Adrian College in Wisconsin. She taught third grade at Assumption Grotto School in Detroit and worked for Frank J. Knight Co. where she met her beloved husband.

Kathryn was a gardener and used her farming experience from growing up in Caseville to make anything grow. She was a devoted Catholic and supported various Catholic missions throughout the world. She loved spending time at her cottage in Caseville.

She is survived by her children, Rachelle McMahon, James (Janice) McMahon and Michael McMahon; grandchildren, Megan Rachel, Trevor James, and Kaitlyn Marie; siblings, Shirley Vivo of Vivo's Food and Spirits in Detroit's Eastern Market and Douglas (Karen) McArdle of Massachusetts.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest; brother-in-law, John Vivo; sister, Dolores Shamie; and brother, John P. McArdle.

Visitation will be from 1 to 9 p.m. today with an evening prayer service at the Wasik Funeral Home, Inc., 49150 Schoenherr Road (north of 22 Mile) Shelby Township. Instate on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. for a 10 a.m. funeral Mass at St. Isidore Church, 18201 23 Mile Road (corner of Romeo Plank). Interment Resurrection Cemetery, Clinton Township, MI. Expressions of sympathy may be shared with the family at www.wasikfuneralhome.com.

Published in the Huron Daily Tribune on 1/8/2008.