

Sing Me That Old Song

Me, and the boys, were down at Johnny's
Singing for our supper
And playing some requests
Every now and then,
We'd play one of ours
It may not be that good
But it was our best

Then out of the corner of my eye, I saw her
Her radiance filled the room
Like nothing before
Instantly, I knew
This time was different
I wasn't sure if I'd seen her before

She said:
Sing me that old song
The one that says you love me
Sing me that old song
The one that stole my heart
Sing me that old song
One more time, baby
My days are so short
And my nights are so long

The boys played that old song
Like it was the first time
We played that old song
Like never, never, never, never before
Everything was right
It was magic
I looked for you
Over by the door

I'll sing you that old song
The one that says I love you
I'll sing me that old song
And steal your heart
I'll sing me that old song
One more time, baby
Our days are so short
And my nights are so long

Time goes bye
In a blink

Then out of the corner of my eye, I saw her
This time I knew
I had loved her before
This time, she knew
This time was different
Yesterday, today, tomorrow and more
