

Backgammon we play,
for love of the game,
Where skill and luck become one and the same.

You play with an eye,
looking for trouble ,
and the chance that Bob Koca might lay down a double!

And the way that Bill holds his cup up in the air,
to fill it with luck,
and to roll the right pair!

Ruth's plays are fast,
cause numbers she knows,
She rolls down those dice, and quickly she goes.

Vic he plays smart,
each move with a plan,
he likes the possibilities, he's a tournament man.

For Michael watch out, competition he loves,
every week he attempts,
to come out above!

Amy is humble,
but skill she's learned fast, with Rich as her teacher, she's having a blast!

Competition is fierce,
watch out for Bill,
cause if you don't beat him his son surely will.

Watch out for Suzanne,
she makes grown men cry,
but if you're lucky.
you'll escape with a bye!

Each player unique,
which makes it so great,
see you on Thursday,
to determine your fate!
