

HIGHER

Rachael Martin ~ Weekend of 4.17.2015

Isaiah 55:9 – As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.

The words this week, cultivating God's promises of provision and His perfection in our lives all point to the fact that He is God and we are not – but yet He chooses to love us, call us His own, and use us to bring about His will that none should perish but have eternal life.

Asbury's commentary regarding the above passage of scripture:

...a final appeal to the exiles to seek Yahweh and return to him...remind the people that their deliverance is beyond human comprehension. God's word has promised it. It will not return void. We recall the opening verses of this portion of the book of Isaiah, "The word of our God stands forever"

God's working and cultivating in us is beyond our human comprehension, His promises and provisions stand forever and He will perfect everything He puts His hands to which means He will, in His timing make things come together – serve purpose – function appropriately – and bring all that's needed to make things work out for good – it's a higher way, a way that although we may not fully understand – will come to fruition because He said so.

Abraham pushed through and was given the provision of the ram in the bush. God had a higher way – His reasons are so much more dynamic and multi-purposed than we can even begin to think or imagine! I believe He wants to start showing us this higher way. I believe He wants to reveal His higher mysteries and plans to His children, His cherished, His loved ones. (hint: that's you and me!)

Even when Moses asked God to reveal Himself to him, God didn't deny Moses' request even though God told him that if he were to look at His face, he would not live. God's hand covered Moses as He hid him in the cleft of the rock and God's presence passed by Moses who was able to look at God's back and still see His glory. (Exodus 33) God made a way for Moses' prayers to be answered – because the Lord was pleased with Moses.

I know God is pleased with each of you reading this today. He has higher ways for all the answers to your prayers. Don't look for the quick fix – because the end result may not be God's best for you. I believe the Lord wants us to ask for understanding for the higher way for things to get done through our day and in the places He has called us to. I've heard it said that sometimes the counterfeit comes before the blessing. I have no doubt that as we wait for God's highest and best for us in each situation, that He will show us what NOT to fall for so that we step out and make the connections we are supposed to. To new heights!
